For Trial of DozenTop Communist Leaders
Will Face Court
January 17

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina today set January 17 for the trial of 12 top Communist Party leaders.

The court rejected defense contentions that "a state of hysteria exists, which is the wilful product of the press and radio in a sustained campaign deliberately conducted by those who are hostile to the defendants."

"I simply cannot find that that is the fact," Judge Medina said. The 12 defendants were indicted on charges they conspired to organize the Communist Party as a group which advocates and teaches overthrow of the government by force.

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McCahey said he will proceed to trial on the date set "with or without Mr. Foster."

The court had held that the physical condition of William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Communist Party, and a defendant, is such that he should not be subjected to a trial immediately. Foster has a heart condition.

Dancer Is Arrested

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Winnie Garrett, nightclub dancer and former Broadway burlesque entertainer, was arrested early today on a charge of presenting a "lewd and indecent performance." Miss Garrett, known as "The Flaming Redhead," was picked up at the Club Ha-Ha, 31 West 52nd street, where she was featured in a floor show. She gave her age as 25.

The club manager, James Nitti, 38, of Jersey City, N. J., was booked on a charge of operating a place where an "indecent" performance is given.

Volunteers From 27
Companies to Take
Training Course

Volunteer firemen from 27 companies have indicated interest in the proposed training course, Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy of Kingston reported at a meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association in the new fire station at Lomontville Tuesday night.

The chief's report indicated that approximately 325 firemen have shown interest in the special training proposal to date through the return of questionnaires.

The by-laws committee reported progress on revisions, and two new members from the Tillson Fire Company were announced. They are Frank Minnikine and Harold C. Auchmoody.

It was decided to hold no meeting in December, but the January meeting will be held in Rifton with members of the association as guests of the five fire companies in the Town of Esopus.

Fred C. Harder also announced the following schedule of meetings: February, Kingston; March, New Paltz; April, Modena; and May, Gardiner. The June meeting was undecided. A meeting of the board of directors is scheduled for December.

Approximately 200 members attended the session, which was the first held at Lomontville. The program included a film on transport planes.

The meeting was adjourned in respect to the memory of Oscar Ehrler, a member of the Saugerties Exempt Firemen's Association, who died recently.

Figures Include Those For Soviet-Held
Zones; $100,000
to Russia

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Shipments of American goods to both western and Soviet-dominated eastern Europe dropped during September.

This was reported today by the Census Bureau in giving a further breakdown on a general decline in shipments abroad during that month. Total exports fell to $926,500,000, the lowest point in nearly two years.

The bureau said: 1. Exports to western Europe slipped another $700,000 in September to a $306,600,000 total despite heavier recovery shipments under the Marshall Plan. Imports from those countries rose $7,000,000 to a $78,600,000 total.

Shipments to troubled China dropped well over 50 per cent, from $19,000,000 in August to $7,700,000 in September. China, on the other hand, shipped to the U. S. goods valued at $8,700,000.

Exports to eastern Europe fell $2,100,000 in September to a $11,900,000 total. Like China, the Soviet sector sent more here ($12,700,000 worth) than it got from the U. S.

U. S. exports to Russia alone slumped to $100,000, second smallest amount in 13 years. (Last June $23,000 was the lowest.) Russian shipments to this country, now consistently higher than U. S. shipments to Russia, rose $1,300,000 to a $9,800,000 total in September.

This country is sending less to Russia and her satellites than it receives chiefly because of a U. S. clamp-down on shipments of industrial and other goods that might add to Soviet "war potential."

Russia so far has shown no intention to retaliate.

The decline in exports to Marshall Plan Europe has, in contrast, been taking place in the face of an increasing amount of shipments paid for by U. S. grants and loans.

Pacific Coast Strikes
Appears Near Settled

San Francisco, Nov. 17 (AP)—Negotiators in the 77-day Pacific coast shipping strike appeared headed down the home stretch toward settlement today.

A big stumbling block in the way of peace in the waterfront tie-up idling 28,000 men—what to do about the hiring halls for the C.I.O. longshoremen—was settled yesterday.

The hiring halls will stay under union control. The tentative agreement of the Waterfront Employers Association and the Longshoremen's Union provided for "modifying practices by mutual agreement if necessary as result of court or congressional action."

Negotiators today prepared to take up problems involving wages, vacations with pay and grievance machinery.

Gets Long Term

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—The author of "How to Commit Murder and Get Away With It" was sentenced to 20 years to life today—but for robbery. Dapper Daniel Francis Ahearn "shouted" "I thought Hitler was dead" after he was sentenced. General Sessions Judge Owen W. Bohan imposed the sentence on the 45-year-old Ahearn as a fourth offender.

Specific Proposals;
Minority Stand
Is Uncertain

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Senator Millikin (R-Colo.) predicted today Republicans will wait and see President Truman's specific proposals to the new Congress before they adopt any opposition policy.

Millikin, who heads the conference of all Republican senators in the present Congress, told a reporter: he doesn't think anyone now can forecast what role the G.O.P. will play as the new majority party.

"We'll just have to wait and see what the President proposes," the Colorado senator said. "Republicans differ in their interpretation of the election results. They will have different ideas about how the party ought to proceed."

Mr. Truman made it plain yesterday the Democratic platform will be his guiding star in laying out a program for the 81st Congress.

That platform wrapped up a lot of promises for future action. It includes such pledges as: (1) repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, (2) standby price and rationing controls, (3) a 75-cent an hour minimum wage, (4) federal aid to education, (5) "comprehensive" housing legislation, (6) increase in Social Security and veterans benefits, and (7) elimination of "all racial, religious and economic discrimination."

In the foreign field it proposed "sound, humanitarian administration of the Marshall Plan," full restoration of the reciprocal trade agreements program, support of the United Nations and a revision of the arms embargo to aid Israel.

Motor Industry Has Its
Pick: Clean Up, Controls

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Congressional Committee probing auto sales profits gave the motor industry today the choice of cleaning its own house or facing possible federal controls.

At the same time, the committee turned over to the Justice Department and the Internal Revenue Bureau the official record of two days of hearings marked by testimony about "tips" to salesmen for quick car deliveries.

Chairman Macy (R-N.Y.), head of the special House group which ended its hearings yesterday, said that disclosures so far cover "only a few of the methods" some dealers have used "to obtain exorbitant profits."

Macy indicated to newsmen that before the committee decides whether to resume its inquiry on a nationwide basis—it has been confined to Washington to date—members will wait to see what the auto industry intends to do about the "greed and avarice of a few dealers."

Macy said it will be up to the Justice Department to determine whether there have been any law violations in selling cars with side money agreements or in requiring purchasers to take unwanted accessories.

And the Internal Revenue Bureau, the lawmaker added, can decide whether taxes have been paid on the tips and bonuses received but, according to committee evidence, not recorded on sales slips.

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—An ace federal mediator was sent here from Washington today to try to settle the costly east coast longshoremen's strike.

Conferences with regional U. S. mediation officials were first on the schedule of William N. Margolis, assistant to the director of the Federal Mediation Service. Margolis made the trip here by plane.

Later, he was expected to try to get shipping officials and union representatives together for the first attempt at a settlement since the walkout began unofficially a week ago.

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Canadian longshoremen who had said they would not handle ships diverted to Halifax from strike-bound American ports worked at full strength today on all ships which sailed there direct.

For two days Halifax longshoremen, who had been handling ships diverted en route to New York, have been conducting a slowdown in sympathy with striking American stevedores.

It was understood the Halifax longshoremen henceforth would work on the basis that ships arriving in Halifax sailed directly to European ports and there fore were not diverted ships.

President J. J. Campbell of the Halifax Longshoremen's Association (A.F.L.) announced last night that the longshoremen would "live up to the full terms of our agreement with the shipping companies and with the laws of Canada."

Beginning today, he said, Halifax's 3,000 longshoremen will handle all goods not consigned to United States ports.

The announcement came less than two days after the union said it would seal off Halifax from any more ships diverted because of the strike.

Although Campbell declined to elaborate just what ships will be handled, it was understood in Halifax circles that all vessels sailing there directly from their cargo-loading points would be "worked."

His union is an affiliate of the striking A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Association. Estimates of losses ran into many millions today as the strike of 65,000 members of the I.L.A. from Maine to Virginia went into its eighth day with no settlement in sight.

Effects of the east coast strike on industry and trade were being felt in many cities. Thousands of railroad and tugboat and trucking workers were laid off temporarily because of the shipping tieup. Many employees in other lines of business also faced idleness.

Big Three Ask Dispute
Be Left With CouncilFord Says Fourth
Round of Increases
Inevitable Matter

Motor Company President
Doesn't Think It
Can Be Halted
in Nation

Philadelphia, Nov. 17 (AP)—Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Company, said today a fourth round of wage increases "is inevitable."

"Workers are going to get another pay boost," Ford told a news conference. "I don't think anything can prevent it."

Ford came here with other members of his firm's policy committee to inspect the Ford assembly plant at nearby Chester, Pa. The 31-year-old executive, commenting on the probable wage increase, said flatly:

"Prices can't go anywhere but up. If wages go up and materials go up, prices must go up. There is no place else for them to go."

Would price control help? "No," Ford insisted. "Price control would wreck the nation—the auto industry included—and ruin the economy."

Ford declared price control would "turn the nation's progress backward."

"It is a trend toward socialism. And such a system would be despicable for the United States."

Ford also defended the Taft-Hartley labor law.

"From our standpoint there is no part of the Taft-Hartley law that is unworkable," Ford said. "I don't think it is a bad law. But it has been pushed into the realm of the political and that's too bad—for both employee and employer."

"We at Ford feel the Taft-Hartley law should be given a fair and lengthy trial before it is changed."

When will a customer be able to go to a dealer and get delivery of an automobile immediately?

"I would guess that it will be a year and a half before that happens," Ford replied. "But a customer can usually get a high-priced car today without waiting."

The backlog of orders is still around 2,000,000, Ford pointed out.

He had this comment on the congressional probe of car dealer activities:

"We know that many dealers are unscrupulous. As long as a dealer has a chance to make easy money, he will. We don't condone the practice and have fired 23 dealers for black market practices. We'll fire more if we catch them."

Wiedemann Is Fined

$600 as Minor Nazi

Passau, Germany, Nov. 17 (AP)—Fritz Wiedemann was classified as a former Nazi-follower today and was fined 2,000 Deutschmarks (about $600).

He served as Adolf Hitler's personal adjutant and later as his consul-general in San Francisco.

A German denazification court ranked Wiedemann in the lowest class of Nazis, although he was charged originally as a major offender.

After a three-day trial produced only two witnesses against Wiedemann and 15 for him, the prosecution asked that the charge be reduced to that of being a minor offender.

Problems Are Selections to Fill Jobs Held
by Forrestal,
Lovett

Key West, Fla., Nov. 17 (AP)—President Truman's delay in the reorganization of his administration was attributed by close associates today to concern about picking replacements for those who are to go.

These sources, unquotable by name, said the President is in no hurry to shake up his cabinet until he completes selection of a team to carry on during the next four years.

As he did a news conference here yesterday, everybody has been shuffling the cabinet around but the President, Mr. Truman added he would act at the proper time.

His major problem will be to pick a new Secretary of Defense to replace James V. Forrestal and a man to succeed Robert E. Lovett as Undersecretary of State.

No decision has been made in either case.

Broad Statements
May Await Talk
Next Week at Capital

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Diplomatic authorities speculated today that the American government soon may issue a pronouncement designed to boost the morale of China's anti-Communist forces.

President Truman and the State Department have before them a plea from Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek for a policy declaration reaffirming support of Chiang's Nationalist government.

Most informed officials considered it likely that any broad policy declaration would await the review of international affairs which Mr. Truman and Secretary of State Marshall will hold at the White House next Monday.

They also are expected to come to grips with the major issue of how far the United States can go in backing up its China policies with dollars, arms and civilian goods.

Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo told a reporter late yesterday he had transmitted to the State Department Chiang's desire for an American policy statement.

What is wanted, Koo said, is an expression of "sympathy, solidarity and support" to help raise the morale of Nationalist China, which in recent weeks has suffered grave defeats at the hands of the Communists.

Koo said his government is at a loss to know what United States policy really is. Thus there was some tendency among officials here to regard Koo's comments as implying a belief that the United States is not now following a policy friendly to the Nationalist government.

Authorities concerned over this point declared that any such implication is unjustified, since the United States actually is spending $400,000,000 for military and civilian aid to Nationalist China.

President Truman, in two major statements on China policy—one in December, 1946, and another a year later, in substance, declared his support for the anti-Communist regime in China, although he was critical on certain shortcomings.

Secretary of State Marshall in the past has advocated reform of the government to put real power in the hands of Chinese "liberals."

He said "China must look to its Liberals for salvation."

In more recent and more informal comments the State Department has taken the position the United States can deal with and support only Chiang's regime. At the same time, officials have been concerned privately at the successful sweep of Communist armies in Manchuria and north China and have begun to wonder whether Chiang's government can stand up against the onslaught.

Chinese diplomats have been talking in terms of more than doubling the present volume of aid to provide a $1,000,000,000 program with most of the money going for military supplies.

What the Chinese apparently would like is the same kind of United States commitment to China as that government gave Greece—a virtual pledge that the Communists simply will not be permitted to take over. So far, however, there has been considerable reluctance in Washington to take any such large scale part in the China war.

Two Dead Does Are Reported to Sheriff

The sheriff's office received reports of two doe deer being found dead in the county Tuesday.

The first at 5:50 p. m. was from Mrs. Laura Markle of Union Center, who reported a doe deer there. Game Warden Philip Gillen was notified and the animal was found near the Chester Soper place.

The animal had been shot and since it was in a blooded condition when found, the carcass was buried.

The second call at 10:50 p. m. was from the home of Decker Gardner of Shady. The animal there was reported lying along the road, and Game Warden James Overbaugh was notified.

Conditions indicated that the animal had been hit by a car, but it was thought possible also that it might have been shot. This one was also blooded.

Marshall Reiterates U. S.
Stand, Says U.N.
Should Act

Paris, Nov. 17 (AP)—The United States, Britain and France told top U.N. officials formally today they want the Berlin dispute with Russia left in the hands of the Security Council to be dealt with as a threat to peace.

The three powers reaffirmed their decision against negotiating with Russia on Berlin while the Soviet blockade of the western sectors continues. These were the two main points of the West's argument.

The net result of the latest flurry of excitement in the United Nations was this: The East and West have once more stated their positions and each has once again declined to budge.

The western powers formalized their stand in reply to the appeal by H. V. Evatt, the assembly president, and T. T. G. Lie, the U.N. secretary-general, who asked the four powers to compose their differences for the good of world peace.

Russia already had replied. She insists, as before, that the Berlin question is part of the all-German question and must be discussed by the Council of Foreign Ministers.

The stalemate was on again. The United States once again said it would not negotiate the issue of Berlin under the threat implicit in the Russian blockade.

Britain said the Russian veto of a Berlin solution offered by the so-called neutrals of the Security Council stood in the way of progress toward a settlement.

That proposal had called for lifting of the blockade, to be followed immediately by a four-power conference.

The British also replied that the most hopeful approach to a Berlin solution would be to leave it to the Security Council.

Secretary of State Marshall, whose reply was checked and cleared with President Truman, said the United States is ready to engage in talks with Russia as soon as the blockade is lifted. He

Chinese Say Reds

Battle Around Suchow
Rated as Giving
Boost to Morale

Nanking, Nov. 17 (AP)—The government asserted today 90,000 casualties were inflicted on Reds routed east of Suchow, gateway to Nanking.

The official and pro-government reports buoyed the capital. But skeptics, mindful of other government claims at Tsinan, Chihnsien, and Mukden just before they fell to the Reds, waited for more information.

These points, however, appeared true on the basis of information here:

1. The Chinese Air Force blunted Red attacks across the open country east of Suchow, 200 miles northwest of the capital.

2. Gen. Huang Po-Tao's Seventh Army group, which was isolated east of Suchow, lost more than half of its full strength of four armies. It survived repeated attacks and still is in the field. Its ability to take and give punishment heartened other government units.

3. The executive Yuan ordered martial law extended to Taingiao, site of the American naval base in the western Pacific. The order goes now to President Chiang Kai-Shek for implementation. The action followed the application of martial law to Nanking, Shanghai and Suchow.

4. Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi's four national armies from Hankow approached the Pukow-Suchow railroad from the west after a forced march of 180 miles.

15 Persons Are Overcome

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Fifteen persons were overcome by smoke yesterday while fighting a fire in the forward hold of a 7,000-ton maritime training ship, The Empire State, tied up at a Bronx pier. Cadets of the New York State Maritime Academy at Fort Schuyler, where the ship was moored, joined city and Naval Reserve fire squads in fighting the fire, which burned uncontrolled for an hour and a half. Fourteen city firemen were treated with an inhalator at the scene. Fred Sheffs, a cadet, was revived and taken to the Fort hospital. The fire was the second within a year aboard the converted wartime attack transport which is used for an annual three-month training cruise.

Farley Urges U. S. Deal With Spain With Cold Alliance

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—James A. Farley, urging resumption of diplomatic relations with Spain, says the United States should enter into "cold-blooded" alliances based on security instead of politics.

The former Democratic national chairman and ex-postmaster general spoke last night at the 1948 convention of the Society of Industrial Engineers.

He said this country must be "coldly realistic and practical" in dealing with Russia. He called for economic aid to Spain, and admission of that Catholic anti-Communist country to the western European union, as well as the sending of an ambassador to Madrid.

"We botched the job of handling Germany and now we are trying to straighten out the wreckage," he said. "We cannot afford another error like it in Spain."

Farley said that during his travels abroad in the past two years, he found everywhere a fear of war and a "sense of insecurity," arising from "the dread force of Communism." That fear, he added, is even stronger in this country, although it is this country "that can stop the sweep of Communism."

Remodeling First Baptist Church

Construction work by Thomas Kennedy & Son, local contractors, is being rushed in the remodeling of the front of the First Baptist Church on Albany avenue. As the picture shows, the entire front of the building is being removed and the stone re-laid in order to make room for a new organ. Installation of the organ by the Syracuse Pipe Organ Company will start just as soon as the space for it is ready. It is hoped that the entire project, which also includes a music room, pastor's study, pulpit and refitting of the front interior of the sanctuary, will be completed by February. Daniel D. Merrill of New York city is the architect. James L. Rowe, finance chairman of the Church Improvement Committee, announces that a campaign to raise $20,000 in additional needed funds will start soon.

This meeting is one of a series which has been sponsored by the Pioneer Associated Breeders for the past two years, at which matters of common interest to all dairymen have been discussed. According to C. L. Schoonmaker, president of the Pioneer Associated Breeders, this will be the most interesting of the meetings yet held. It was the experimental breeding work of Prentice's father at Mount Hope Farm which led to the establishment of the American Dairy Cattle Club by the two Prentices. Since his return from the army in 1946, the younger Prentice has been devoting all his time to the expansion of an artificial breeding business. At the present time cows in at least 13 states are being bred artificially. It is expected that approximately 200,000 cows will be bred through these services in 1948.

Funeral services for Mrs. Philip B. Sibley, 77 Main street, died Tuesday evening at her home, were held Monday at 2 p. m. at the First Baptist Church. Burial took place in the family plot in St. Mary's Cemetery.

The funeral of Miss Emma Ringwald was held from her home, 620 Delaware avenue, this morning, thence to St. Peter's Church where a high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of her soul by the Rev. Henry E. Herdgen. Seated in the chancel was the Rev. John Fogarty, C. S. R. R. who read the lesson and officiated at the offertory. The offertory was sung by the choir. The Rev. Joseph Geis, pastor of St. Peter's Church, gave final absolution at the grave. During the bereavement many called at the Ringwald home to offer prayers and condolence. Among the clergy who recited the Rosary were the Very Rev. Msgr. Martin J. Drury, pastor of St. Mary's Church, and Fathers Herdgen, Fogarty and Geis. There were many beautiful floral pieces and Mass cards.

Funeral services for Philip Graeff, well-known painting contractor of Maple Hill, were held Monday at 3 p. m. from the George J. Moylan Funeral Home, Main street, Rosendale. Services were largely attended by his relatives and friends. The Rev. David C. Weidner, pastor of the Bloomington Reformed Church, officiated. There was a profusion of beautiful floral offerings, a high Mass of requiem was offered, and the high altar was decorated with flowers. The body was held Sunday afternoon members of America, Local 255, called at the funeral home to pay their respects. Sunday evening members of Kingston Lodge, 530, B.P.O.E., called to pay their respects and held a ritualistic service for their late brother. Burial took place in the family plot in Rosendale Plains cemetery where the Rev. Mr. Weidner conducted the committal services. Bearers were Joseph Netherwood, Joseph Ceusters, William DeKoskie, William Reilly, Henry Van Steenburg and Alvin Van Hovenburg.

The body of Pvt. John C. Schary, who was killed in Italy, October 10, 1944, arrived in Kingston, Tuesday, aboard the 4:50 p. m. West Shore train. Members of the family, delegations of the Kingston Veterans Association and Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, and Alderman-at-Large Charles J. Turck, representing the city, met the body. The body was escorted from Schenectady, N. Y., to Kingston by P. E. J. V. Batson. The color guard which honored the veteran's arrival consisted of Victor Osborn, Robert Zimer, Donald G. Moore and Charles H. Hummer, Jr. Bearers were Fritz Kammann, Ralph Seism, Morgan Ryan, Howard Shurter, Sidney Lane and Ben Hudela. The body was taken, under police escort, to the Jensen and Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs street, where funeral services were held today at 2 p. m. The Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, pastor of the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, officiated. Burial was in the family plot in Montrose Cemetery where full military honors were accorded by the K. V. A.

The body of Cpl. Cady Hobart Earle of Verona, N. J., a veteran of the Anzio beachhead invasion, will arrive in Kingston Friday aboard the 4:50 West Shore train. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Jensen and Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs street, and burial will follow in Huddler Cemetery, Mt. Tremper. The New Jersey veteran died February 24, 1944, after receiving wounds at Anzio. Cpl. Earle, who was inducted March 1943, went overseas in October 1943 and later took an active part in the invasion of Italy. He was killed in 1945. Prior to his induction into the army he had attended Montclair Academy, Kingsley School and Verona High School. He is survived by his wife, Gloria Bland Cooke Earle, his parents, Eldon H. and Emily F. Wadams Earle; three brothers, Eldon H. Jr. of South America; Richard W. of Boston, Wis., and David L. of Williamsburg, Va. Also surviving is his grandfather, Eldon A. Earle of Bloomfield, N. J. The Rev. William R. Peckham, pastor of Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, will officiate at the services on Saturday. Military rites will be accorded the late veteran by American Legion Post of Phoenicia. Friends may call at the funeral parlors any time after 5:30 p. m. on Friday.

The body of Pvt. Charles L. North, husband of Ruth K. North, and father of Pfc. Charles L. North, Jr., arrived in Kingston Tuesday aboard the 11:45 a. m. West Shore train and was met by members of the family. Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, delegations from the Kingston Veterans Association, Boy Scouts, Post-Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary, American Legion, Auxiliary and Auxiliary 53, Sons of Union Veterans. From the station the cortege moved to Montrose Cemetery escorted by the police. The committal service at the cemetery was conducted by the Rev. Edward J. Herdgen, D. D., of the First Baptist Church. Full military rites were accorded by the K. V. A. Bearers were Howard Shurter, Fritz Kammann, Sidney Lane, William Jordan, Ben Hudela and Morgan Ryan. The color guard consisted of Clarence Hyde, sergeant; Victor Osborn, Charles H. Hummer, Jr., Robert Zimer, Louis Thomas, Bohan, and Clarence Brown. The firing squad included John R. Mayone, sergeant; Eugene Barlow, John Tyler, Donald G. Moore and George D. Irvine. Taps were sounded by John R. Mayone after which the flag, which draped the casket, was presented to the family by Cpl. E. J. Updike, the government's escort, who accompanied the body from Schenectady to Kingston. The body of Pvt. North arrived in this country November 1 from Italy aboard the Lawrence Victory.

Secretary of State Marshall to remain on the job when the latter meets with him at the White House Monday for a full-scale review of the delicate international situation.

The President said yesterday that Mr. Marshall has wanted to retire ever since he left the army and that only a sense of patriotic duty has kept him in the cabinet. They have had, he said, a perfect understanding at all times.

Meanwhile, the chief executive officer of the government, Mr. Marshall, in a formal reply to a suggestion by Secretary General Lie of the United Nations and President Evatt of the U. N. General Assembly that he and the heads of the four nations negotiate an end to the Berlin blockade independently of the United Nations. The President said flatly that the United States will not participate in any peace talks of that nature until Soviet Russia lifts its blockade of the German capital.

Mr. Truman is flying back to Washington Sunday, ending his two weeks post-campaign vacation at the Naval Submarine Base here.

Meanwhile, the President said he was in communication with President Chiang Kai-Shek on the deteriorating Chinese situation in which the Communists are reported to be making inroads on the government.

At the same time, there was no comment here on the observation of Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo that his government wants a definite statement from the United States on its policy on China.

Transport Is Crippled

Westover Air Force Base, Mass., Nov. 17 (AP)—The U. S. Army transport "Comfort" was reported crippled at sea 1,300 miles east of Boston today and a rescue plane prepared to fly needed parts to her. Officials here said the transport was in "no immediate difficulties" but was drifting after burning out bearings. A four-engine B-17 was readied for take-off later today to fly new bearings to the "Comfort." The parts will be dropped by parachute some time tomorrow, the air force said. The rescue trip would take coast guard cutters four days, officials added.

Ashes Are Committed

The ashes of Frederic W. Goudy, famous designer of type, and his wife, Mrs. Bertha Goudy, finally were committed Monday to historic Old Town Cemetery, Newburgh, after a year's search for a vacant plot. Mrs. Goudy died on October 2, 1935, and Mr. Goudy on May 2, 1937. For years the famous type designer resided at Marlborough. Space was provided by Alexander Hutchinson, a retired teacher, in his family plot in the crowded old cemetery, and the Rex A. Elwood Corning conducted a brief committal service on Monday.

Is Reported Good; To Leave Hospital

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—An Albany Hospital spokesman said today that Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley was "well on the road to recovery" and was expected to leave the hospital this week-end.

Hanley, 72, was taken to the hospital November 15, suffering acute glaucoma, his right eye a condition marked by redness of the eyeball due to excessive internal pressure. The eye was removed last Saturday.

And the Countess' Check Also Bounced

Virginia City, Nev., Nov. 17 (AP)—A bejeweled, smartly dressed lady gambler known as "The Countess" had the long-distance lines humming today for funds to cover a check she wrote to spring her poker-playing partner from jail.

Dist. Attorney Robert Berry said the "Countess" Miss Henry C. A. Kransdenky of Philadelphia, could leave the poker as soon as she could make good the $2,200 check which freed Burdette Beveridge, 39, of Vancouver, Wash.

Berry said she had made telephone calls to New York, Beverly Hills and Mexico City "but so far she hasn't raised a nickel."

The "Countess" who told authorities she comes from a wealthy family and is married to an art dealer, arrived with Beveridge early last week and started playing high-stakes poker in a main street bar.

She did most of the playing, and Beveridge wrote checks covering her losses. The game went on for three or four days.

Then, on the complaint of Len Haffey, who ran the game, Beveridge was jailed on a charge of writing bad checks.

The "Countess" offered to cover Beveridge's checks with one of her own. Haffey and the authorities agreed to this, and charges against Beveridge were dismissed. He left town.

But then Miss Kransdenky's $2,200 check also proved uncashable. Berry said it was written on the Drexel & Biddle Bank of Philadelphia, and Berry said no such bank existed.

So the "Countess" took Beveridge's place in the ancient county jail.

In Philadelphia, no track of a Henry C. A. Kransdenky could be found. An official of the banking firm of Drexel & Co. said it had no depositor by that name.

Brothers Are Sentenced

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Two brothers were sentenced yesterday to a year in the city penitentiary on their guilty plea to falsifying state income tax returns. They were Max W. Federbusch, 45, and his brother, R. S. Federbusch, 45, (50 Old Pond Road) Great Neck, N. Y. They have been engaged in the manufacture of loose-leaf binders in the Federbusch Company, 91 Seventh avenue. The state indicated that at least $275,000 of corporate income was not reported and that the brothers failed to report at least $300,000 of personal income.

Fackenthal Is Named

Upton, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—Dr. Frank D. Fackenthal, formerly the acting president of Columbia University, has been named president of Associated Universities, Inc., the management corporation which operates Brookhaven National Laboratory.

Fackenthal will remain a chairman of the trustees' committee on education of Columbia. The position of president of Associated Universities is a non-paying and part-time position. Brookhaven is the nuclear research center for the northeastern region.

Forrestal Returns to U. S.

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Forrestal, back from a quick week's trip to Europe, says Americans should have the "deepest pride" in their troops and leaders overseas. He told reporters at National Airport last night that he wanted to pay his "particular compliment" to General Lucius Clay, American military governor in Germany, and to Clay's staff.

Forrestal conferred during the week with military officials of the United States and other governments in Berlin, London, Frankfurt and Paris.

More Windows Hit

Several more store windows on Broadway were hit by the police today to have been damaged by BB pellets. Similar damage was reported by the police last week to windows along the central portion of Broadway. Today's damage was reported at 519, 535 and 709 Broadway. Police said the shots apparently were fired by someone in a car. The investigation is still in progress, authorities said.

Big Three Ask . . .

said also the United States looks to the Security Council for further efforts to solve the issue.

Marshall, in the formal American reply to the Evatt-Lie letter, said the United States had discussed the matter directly with Russia, until it became apparent the Berlin blockade was established to gain political objectives to which Russia was not entitled.

"We therefore referred the question to the Security Council as a threat to the peace, where it still remains," Marshall replied.

To compromise the principle of the Big Three, the force shall not be used for the attainment of national objectives would endanger the peace of the world," Marshall wrote.

"There is a basic issue in relation to Berlin—that is, whether or not the Soviet government can be permitted to use force, whether by way of blockade or of economic pressures involving currency, credit or trade, or otherwise to deprive the western powers of participation in the administration of Berlin."

Dr. Evatt and Lie received the replies from the delegation chiefs without comment. Informed quarters, however, said the two would continue efforts looking for a peaceful solution, despite this apparent stone wall.

Would Seek Accord

The French reply to the Evatt-Lie appeal, signed by Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, said that, despite the veto by Russia Oct. 25 of the neutral proposal at the Security Council, the French are ready to seek an accord with the aid of the U. N.

This French statement did not conflict with the British-American position, but coincided with the stand that the question must be left with the Security Council at present.

The Berlin issue was referred to the council by the west as a threat to peace after negotiations in Moscow and Berlin broke down.

Evatt and Lie wrote their appeal Saturday to the heads of the four big delegations, and the chief executive officers of the four powers. The two left the way for any method of solution the Big Four might adopt, but said the world was looking anxiously for a settlement, they did not write the president of the Security Council, Juan A. Bramuglia of Argentina, because the case still is before the Security Council.

The three powers provided copies of their replies to Lie and Evatt for the Security Council, for its information.

"Speaking of the role of the Security Council, Marshall wrote in his reply:

"It is a source of deep regret that up to the present, conditions thus imposed have impeded the fulfillment of the purposes of the assembly's resolution. (The Mexican resolution calling for Big Four cooperation.)

"As has repeatedly been made clear both in direct discussion before the Security Council, and in the efforts of the Security Council to solve the Berlin problem, and to participate in any efforts made to meet the fundamental issues inherent in this problem, which will remove the threat to the peace and which can be accepted in good faith by the parties concerned."

Marshall said the government of the United States wants a solution of the Berlin question and continues to seek such a solution through the United Nations.

"We have supported the efforts of the Security Council and its president to remove the danger to the peace and to the Soviet blockade of the western sectors of Berlin," Marshall wrote. "I desire to assure you that this remains our course and objective."

Marshall answered for President Truman.

Hector McNeill, British acting foreign minister, replied for Prime Minister Attlee. McNeill said the Soviet veto of the proposed settlement October 25 stands in the way of further progress for a solution.

McNeill pointed out that the Berlin question is still on the workbench of the Security Council and that the British government feels the most hopeful method of reaching a speedy and satisfactory solution would be to leave it in the hands of the Security Council.

The British answer said Britain is ready to talk about Berlin and other outstanding German questions in the four-power council of foreign ministers as soon as the Russian blockade is lifted.

Robert Schuman, French foreign minister, answered for Premier Henri Queuille.

The three notes had the same views but were not identical. The French emphasized more than the other western powers their desire to keep the case within the Security Council channel.

Schuman wrote that the Russian veto had prevented a solution and that the result was disappointing.

Despite that, Schuman said, the French are completely ready to continue to seek a settlement with the aid of the United Nations.

Andre Y. Vishinsky, Soviet deputy foreign minister, replied for Premier Stalin late yesterday.

Vishinsky said the Soviet government maintains its demand for a meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers on all of Germany.

He said the Soviet government shared the view of Evatt and Lie that the solution of the Berlin question would have a positive effect on the settlement of other questions, such as those of peace treaties for Germany, Austria and Japan.

Dr. Evatt sent personal telegrams to the four chiefs of state in addition to the letters handed to their delegates here Saturday. He refused today to release those telegrams at this time.

Dist. Attorney Robert Berry said the "Countess" Miss Henry C. A. Kransdenky of Philadelphia, could leave the poker as soon as she could make good the $2,200 check which freed Burdette Beveridge, 39, of Vancouver, Wash.

Berry said she had made telephone calls to New York, Beverly Hills and Mexico City "but so far she hasn't raised a nickel."

The "Countess" who told authorities she comes from a wealthy family and is married to an art dealer, arrived with Beveridge early last week and started playing high-stakes poker in a main street bar.

She did most of the playing, and Beveridge wrote checks covering her losses. The game went on for three or four days.

Then, on the complaint of Len Haffey, who ran the game, Beveridge was jailed on a charge of writing bad checks.

The "Countess" offered to cover Beveridge's checks with one of her own. Haffey and the authorities agreed to this, and charges against Beveridge were dismissed. He left town.

But then Miss Kransdenky's $2,200 check also proved uncashable. Berry said it was written on the Drexel & Biddle Bank of Philadelphia, and Berry said no such bank existed.

So the "Countess" took Beveridge's place in the ancient county jail.

In Philadelphia, no track of a Henry C. A. Kransdenky could be found. An official of the banking firm of Drexel & Co. said it had no depositor by that name.

Brothers Are Sentenced

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Two brothers were sentenced yesterday to a year in the city penitentiary on their guilty plea to falsifying state income tax returns.

They were Max W. Federbusch, 45, and his brother, R. S. Federbusch, 45, (50 Old Pond Road) Great Neck, N. Y. They have been engaged in the manufacture of loose-leaf binders in the Federbusch Company, 91 Seventh avenue. The state indicated that at least $275,000 of corporate income was not reported and that the brothers failed to report at least $300,000 of personal income.

Fackenthal Is Named

Upton, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—Dr. Frank D. Fackenthal, formerly the acting president of Columbia University, has been named president of Associated Universities, Inc., the management corporation which operates Brookhaven National Laboratory.

Fackenthal will remain a chairman of the trustees' committee on education of Columbia. The position of president of Associated Universities is a non-paying and part-time position. Brookhaven is the nuclear research center for the northeastern region.

Forrestal Returns to U. S.

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Forrestal, back from a quick week's trip to Europe, says Americans should have the "deepest pride" in their troops and leaders overseas. He told reporters at National Airport last night that he wanted to pay his "particular compliment" to General Lucius Clay, American military governor in Germany, and to Clay's staff.

Forrestal conferred during the week with military officials of the United States and other governments in Berlin, London, Frankfurt and Paris.

More Windows Hit

Several more store windows on Broadway were hit by the police today to have been damaged by BB pellets. Similar damage was reported by the police last week to windows along the central portion of Broadway. Today's damage was reported at 519, 535 and 709 Broadway. Police said the shots apparently were fired by someone in a car. The investigation is still in progress, authorities said.

Proposed Boost in Phone Rates for Kingston Area

Increases Will Run From 30 Cents Up to $2 Monthly Excluding Tax

The New York Telephone Company has asked the Public Service Commission to authorize an increase in its revenues throughout the company's statewide territory, including Kingston and vicinity. This is the first time in 18 years that the company has requested higher rates for telephone service.

Carl Whitmore, president of the company, said the increase is needed in order to meet today's higher costs of furnishing service and to provide a reasonable return on money invested in the business, so that we can attract the additional capital needed to continue the company's expansion and improvement program.

Under a proposed schedule submitted by the company, monthly increases for Kingston subscribers, excluding tax, would range from 30 cents for four-party line residence service up to $2 for individual business lines. The company's petition also lists 5-cent increases for most basic toll rates for calls within the state where present rates are 20 cents or more, and other increases for night, Sunday and person-to-person calls, for overtime, and for extension stations as well as for switchboards and other equipment.

Although the proposed schedule is designed to increase the company's annual income from its services within New York state by about 15 per cent, Mr. Whitmore said, "This does not mean that all subscribers' bills would be increased by 15 per cent. The increase for some customers would be less, and for some more, depending on the type of service they have, the use they make of the telephone and the number of telephones which can be reached without a toll charge."

Pending a decision fixing permanent rates, the company asked that a temporary rate increase be granted immediately by means of a 30 per cent addition to only the local service charge on customers' bills, "to maintain our credit and to meet the most recent increases in costs." Mr. Whitmore said, "no longer bring enough revenue to meet higher costs of furnishing service. We have now reached a point where, on account of the upward spiral in costs of materials and in wages, which together make up the company's 'cost of living,' it is simply impossible for us to remain financially healthy today under 1930 rates—just as it would for an individual to live today on his 1930 wages."

Discussing the proposed rate increases for Kingston customers, C. E. Burnett, New York Telephone Company manager here, said, "Kingston has grown considerably in recent years, and so has its telephone system. In 1930, when the present local rates were established, there were only 7,400 telephones that could be called by Kingston subscribers without a toll charge, while today the number has grown to more than 13,300."

"The use being made of telephone in Kingston has shown a remarkable increase, too," Mr. Burnett said. "Subscribers here are now averaging 65,000 calls a day—19,000 more than on V-J Day, and 51,000 more than in 1930."

"This rapid growth has naturally created many problems," Mr. Burnett declared, "but in spite of them our service in Kingston is showing steady improvement. And we've almost cleared up our biggest postwar problem: the waiting list for telephones, which at one time had over 700 names."

In order to accomplish this, Mr. Burnett said, the Kingston central office has been enlarged since V-J Day to take care of 1,900 more subscribers. Next year, he continued, further central office equipment will be added to serve 350 more telephone customers.

Right now, Mr. Burnett said, the telephone company is "particularly concerned with the problem of filling requests from our customers for a better grade of service than is now generally available—such as individual or 2-party line." There are now almost 1,000 such requests in Kingston, he added.

To provide better grades of service for these customers will require more central office equipment and cable than is now available, Mr. Burnett said. "Up to the present we have felt obliged to allocate almost all of the new equipment to giving service to people who had no telephones at all," he added. "However, we are keeping a careful record of all applications for a better grade of service and these will be filled just as soon as sufficient equipment is available."

Recently, the company has completed 25 miles of central office equipment and cable, Mr. Burnett said. Right now, he continued, telephone construction men are placing several miles of subscriber cable to expand service in the Kingston area.

Rural line subscribers having Ulster Park numbers, Mr. Burnett said, would pay monthly increases, under the proposed schedule, of 50 cents for residence service and 75 cents for business service, excluding tax.

Monthly increases ranging from 50 cents for four-party line residence service to $1 for individual business lines, excluding tax, are proposed in the following Kingston area exchanges:

Esopus, Fleischmanns, High Falls, Phoenixia, Pine Hill, Rosendale, Shokan and Woodstock.

The number of telephones increased an average of 55 per cent in these exchanges since the war, Mr. Burnett said. While there are about 30 applicants now waiting for telephones throughout these exchanges, this number is only a small fraction of the total formerly on the waiting list, and since the war new equipment has been installed in all these central offices to serve approximately 1,300 new customers. Further additions are scheduled in 1949 in the Pine Hill, Rosendale and Shokan exchanges. In some districts, Mr. Burnett said, additional equipment will allow the company to provide better grades of services for party-line customers who have requested them.

Improvements in rural service will take place next year in Woodstock, where the number of parties on rural lines will be reduced to a maximum of eight. Semi-selective ringing will also be introduced in Woodstock, so that each customer will hear fewer other rings than his own.

Woman Gives Bail In Jersey Case

Newark, N. J., Nov. 17 (AP)—Miss Elsie M. Matthews was free in $1,000 bail today following a plea of innocent to one specific charge of embezzlement in connection with alleged irregularities of $32,000 of Manhattan Life Insurance Co. funds.

Miss Matthews, a top-selling woman insurance agent, entered the plea before Justice of the Peace Samuel Verniero to a single charge of converting $8,000 of the company's money to her own use.

A Caldwell resident, she is a member of a prominent family and was a general agent for the insurance firm.

Miss Matthews, former national chairman of the women's section,

National Association of Life Underwriters, has made complete restitution, company officials said.

Essex County Prosecutor Duane E. Minard said Miss Matthews was arrested Monday night at her home after insurance company representatives had "laid before me evidence of embezzlement."

The complaint, signed by a company official, charged Miss Matthews with embezzlement of $8,000. Minard said. He added that "a preliminary investigation" indicated the irregularities were from $30,000 to $32,000.

An insurance firm spokesman said no policyholder will suffer any loss. He said irregularities were discovered two weeks ago and Miss Matthews, who had offices in Montclair, was dropped immediately as an agent.

ELLENVILLE NEWS

Ellenville, Nov. 17—The town board of the town of Wawarsing included in its annual budget for 1949 the sum of $2,500 for a survey and to secure adequate insurance for every fireman in the town. The action was taken on petition of a number of citizens who appeared before the board. Now comes a letter to Supervisor William Kelb, written by Miss Katharine T. Terwilliger of the Terwilliger Insurance Agency, which indicates that the action taken was unnecessary. Miss Terwilliger states that the firemen already "do have the proper protection," that their compensation policy covers the firemen while fighting fires in the town outside of the incorporated villages and fire districts—also that outside firemen, called in to fight fires in the town of Wawarsing are covered by the policy.

Bids for the work of addition and alterations to Veterans Memorial Hospital, opened November 9, proved to be considerably in excess of the architect's estimates. The work embraced four separate projects and the total of the lowest bids on each of them was $131,678. The architect's estimate was between $107,000 and $108,000. The low bidders on the projects were: General construction, F. D. Rich, Inc., $79,950; plumbing, John J. Matthews, $28,500; electrical work, John D. Krushner, $9,491; electric elevator installation, Sedgwick Elevator Co., $13,707.

Although footing for a new 40x50 foot village garage has been put in the village board has decided not to build at this time. Reasons, material estimates run to about $3,000 and the garage probably could not be completed before winter. The board voted $175 toward village Christmas decorations. They also decided to move the fire alarm system from the Marshall-Janson garage to the municipal building. A large increase in rental had been asked by the garage.

Frank J. Campbell, master of Wawarsing Lodge No. 582, F. & A. M., 1903-1909, and Fred A. Buchmann, master in 1918 and 1927, were honored at an anniversary meeting. They are the second and third oldest living past masters of the lodge. Edmund H. Zupp and Charles F. Kaiser, Jr., past masters, spoke of the services the guests of honor had rendered to the lodge. Thomas J. Duffield on behalf of the lodge presented them with Masonic copies of the Bible. Raymond C. Götman, present master, received and welcomed the notables present, who were introduced by Wallace C. Budd, past district deputy grand master.

Miss Everice Parsons of the Home Bureau spoke on "Mental Hygiene" at the meeting of the Shawangunk Child Study Club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Salvatore Spadaro. On December 14 the club will have their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Arthur Distel.

The sharp wind and rainstorm Saturday, Nov. 6, just before 11 p. m., put 500 telephones out of service in the Ellenville-Kerkonick-Grahamsville area.

Parking meter collections continue to keep above the $200 weekly mark.

Recent births at Veterans Memorial Hospital: Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford P. Delaney of Napanoch; son to Mr. and Mrs.

Ostave J. Perry of West Shokan; son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Johnson of Accord; daughter to the Rev. and Mrs. Luther Sievert of Rensselaer, formerly of Ellenville.

Miss Alice I. Moffit, village clerk, reports 28 births in the village of Ellenville during October. This is said to be a record for one month, the previous high being 27 during the month of February, 1947.

The board of education will present the main program for the P-T-A meeting November 19 at 8:15 p. m. At the meeting a committee of three to present a report of their findings on the comic book situation.

Sixty-seven candidates reported for basketball at the Ellenville High School last week. Coach Vincent Gillen has four lettermen from last year's squad. The opening game will be at Otisville on November 23.

Mrs. Arthur B. Terwilliger, who with her family is to leave this month for their new home in Monticello, was given a surprise farewell party at the home of Mrs. Clyde Matthews by the ladies of the Dutch Guild of the Reformed Church.

The Ellenville Jewish community announces the first of a projected series of lectures and concerts to be held at the high school auditorium. Elmer van Passen will be the speaker at the opening program, evening of December 15.

Floyd LeFever, engineer in charge of the U. S. Geological Survey office here, who has been in the west since July, is expected home about November 18. Mr. LeFever has been on temporary assignment for study and work on the Columbia river flood situation in the states of Oregon and Washington.

The Rev. Thomas H. E. Richards, pastor of the Methodist Church here, 1925-26, is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elyou 53 Market street, and it is understood expects to spend the winter in Ellenville. He spent the summer at the Tri-State Bible Conference, Port Jervis.

Mrs. Antone Hemberg, accompanied by her son, Carl, went to New York Thursday, where she entered Memorial Hospital for examination and treatment.

Mrs. George F. Andrews has gone to spend the winter at 390 Victoria avenue, Winter Park, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Curry have taken an apartment in Mrs. Andrews' house on Center street while she is in the south.

Mrs. Millard Hook has gone to Stratford, Conn., where she will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Booth.

Mrs. Carrie Lauber of Harriman has moved to Ellenville and has an apartment in the Kenneth Mance house.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wideltz have left for Miami, where they expect to spend the winter.

John Couch is a patient at Veterans Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Patmore of Greenfield have closed their home and will spend the winter at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Newirk.

Mrs. Lulu Penker of Cape avenue has been removed to St. Luke's Hospital, Newburgh, for treatment of a fractured hip sustained in a fall at her home.

Miss Eleanor Miller of Ulster Heights, who resigned a bookkeeping position in the First National Bank in October, has taken a similar position in the Home National Bank.

Mrs. Elbert Westbrook suffered painful leg injuries when she fell while on her way to church Sunday morning last.

Miss Patricia Yarwood of Walker Valley, formerly in the office of Attorney Philip Slutsky, has a bookkeeping position with the First National Bank and Trust Co.

Mrs. Harold L. Ray is reported to be improving at her home, following head injuries received in a two-car collision at Napanoch November 6, during the storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carley of Brooklyn are spending two weeks at the home of his sister, Mrs. Arthur Benton.

Mrs. Frank Schonher has entered Brooklyn Hospital for observation.

As Pegler Sees It

who put on the lips of President Truman the howl that Taft-Hartley was a slave-labor law. Truman knew the score, though. He knew.

At that time, Moreschi's union had not held a national convention nor an election of officers since September, 1911. That was 26 years. Moreschi had not been elected president. He and the other racketeers had just elected themselves. Carozzo's union of paying workers had never held a convention nor an election. Never.

Mike just rounded up so many faceless men on the streets of Chicago. Ignorant hunkies loveling in the dirty slums. And the A. F. of L. granted Mike a charter tantamount to a title of ownership of all men so employed.

After the trade Carozzo ceased to be king but became a duke of the same zone that he ruled before. Chicago was no longer an independent kingdom of the Fuders' Union but a duchy of the Fuders' Union. He ruled until he died a rich man with a lavish farm stocked with pure-bred animals. William Green, President Truman's friend, cohort and advisor on the Taft-Hartley Law, signed all the official articles for the A. F. of L.

This kind of things goes on constantly. The members are not consulted. You are just rated like so much farm stock and then told. You get new union cards which are actually work-permits graciously authorizing you to earn your living during the pleasure of a Mike Carozzo, a (henry Joe Moreschi, a Dan Tobin) or a John L. Lewis. Yes, you!

Tobin is the most rapacious and arrogant headhunter of the present day. This swollen old fat-head's cruelty is the more awful in an old man with a gentle infatuation with himself. Actually an ignoramus, as his pompous editorials often show, he regards himself as a wise, infallible king. His powers are far more terrible than any powers of our government short of the legal death penalty. His goons might beat you to death, however, and the Supreme Court might condone it if the killing were done strictly in the interests of the union. The court has actually condoned beatings in the union's interest.

In 1917, the Hodcarriers' gang took over the International Union of Compressed Air and Foundation Workers. No debate. No vote. In 1919 it took over all Street Cleaners' unions. No debate. No vote. Also in 1919 the A. F. of L. awarded thousands of shipyard workers to the Hodcarriers. In 1929 they absorbed the Tunnel and Subway Constructors' International Union. In 1930, G. B. Dioguardi, a sporting fellow with a racing stable, in return for certain considerations, ceded to Moreschi his outfit of faceless men—pigs, for all their volition in the matter—under a treaty merging the Bricklayers' Helpers' United Building and Common Laborers' Union with Moreschi's racket.

These racketeers are the people who sent out the expensive pamphlets and hired the radio-time to tell you that Taft-Hartley meant slavery.

Plea for Support
Of Volunteers Is Made by Officer

A plea for support of the work of The Volunteers of America was made before the local Lions Club in the Governor Clinton Hotel Tuesday by Capt. Emma M. Brant of the organization.

Work of the day nursery and other "emergency work" at 24 Barmann avenue, was stressed by the speaker, who also emphasized the need of public support in carrying through with its program.

The children cared for at the nursery, Capt. Brant said, are largely from families whose fathers are in the lower income bracket, and whose mothers are also employed and therefore unable to be at home during the daytime.

A minimum fee of 30 cents a day is charged for the care of children at the nursery, mainly as an inducement to those who oppose outright charity, she said, but this does not cover operating costs. Those who can afford to pay more are asked to do so, however.

Among daily costs are those for food and maintenance, and another for the employment of two persons as required under state law.

Local workers for the Volunteers of America, Capt. Brant said, have gone "afar" in the soliciting of funds to carry on the work of this local institution, but she feels now that "the city of Kingston ought to support the nursery."

The speaker made a direct appeal to members of the club and said she thought that if the people in Kingston cannot operate an institution, "of which we are proud, then it is better not to do it at all."

Workers at the nursery, she said, are interested in each child cared for, and the organization tries to do its best in its other work of helping young people in difficulties. It gives assistance to young persons who have wandered away from their homes, she stressed, and she told a specific instance in which help was given in returning a boy to his Canadian home.

Aside from assistance in carrying out its regular program, Capt. Brant said, the building on Barmann avenue, is also in need of repairs, and she said she was hopeful that the organization would obtain enough help in the future to make the repair program possible.

Capt. Brant was introduced by Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, who as a member of the Lions Club, was in charge of the program. He commended the speaker and the organization for their work.

Theodore Lee, vice-president of the club, who presided in the absence of Frank Martocci, president, introduced Mayor Newkirk. The vice-president promised that the Lions Club would be of assistance to the Volunteers of America.

Delay Death Sentences

Berlin (AP)—To hang a criminal in Berlin these days requires virtually five death sentences. Under occupation rules the death sentence can be passed by a German court but it must have the affirmation of the four occupying powers. This was relatively simple up to last July, when the Russians walked out and torpedoed the four-power Allied Kommandatura. But now the German authorities have to circulate the four Allied commandants separately. The three western commandants usually answer promptly but the Russian commander dangles and the executioner has to wait until he hears from him.

Aircraft Regulations

Department of Commerce regulations require that all aircraft flying between sunset and sunrise show three position lights, green on the right wing, red on the left, and a white light set far back on the tail.

It is essential that valves have correct clearance and timing, and that they be properly seated, if the engine is to run smoothly.

Help From the White House

Insurance from her husband's Army policy was finally paid to Mrs. John S. Power, of Washington, D. C., when President Truman took a hand at cutting red tape that had stymied payments for 10 months. Power, an Army civilian economist, was killed in an airplane crash last January, but it wasn't until the President, nearly a year later, ordered the Defense Department and the Veterans' Administration to make an investigation that Mrs. Power, shown with her three children, got paid.

Telephone Rates have not been increased in eighteen years

NOW RISING COSTS MAKE IT NECESSARY FOR US TO ASK THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION TO AUTHORIZE REVISION OF TELEPHONE RATES

Most of the telephone charges you now pay were fixed in 1930—eighteen years ago.

But this is 1948. The cost of materials and wages, which together make up the company's "cost of living," has spiraled upward. It is as impossible for us to remain financially healthy under 1930 rates as it would be for an individual to live today on his 1930 wages. Only an increase in telephone revenues can assure continuation of good, dependable service.

We have placed the detailed facts before the Public Service Commission, along with a proposal for a general revision of New York State telephone rates that would accomplish three things:

1. Provide an increase in telephone revenues—less than 15%—that is needed to maintain the progressive telephone service you want.
2. Afford a reasonable return on money invested in the business so as to attract the additional capital needed to continue the company's current expansion and improvement program.
3. Spread the costs of telephone service more fairly among all telephone users.

The nearly 15 per cent increase in revenue to the telephone company would not necessarily raise your telephone bill by exactly that much. The increase for some customers would be less, and for some more, depending on the type of service they have, the use they make of the telephone and the number of telephones you will be able to reach without a toll charge.

NEW CONDITIONS CALL FOR NEW RATES

The rates now in effect do not take into account the growth of cities, shifts in population, and other changes. The plan we have submitted to the Commission provides a more equitable rate schedule, because it recognizes the changing needs of our customers. For example, we propose to extend the toll-free calling areas in many communities. The company plans to provide faster and better service between New York City and its suburbs in Nassau and southern Westchester. This would be accomplished through direct dialing of practically all calls within this area and by charging for these calls on a message-unit basis.

NEW RATES VITAL TO FUTURE DEVELOPMENT

The history of the telephone has been one of constant improvement and growth. Telephone service has been made faster, more accurate, and available to more and more people. Right now, to meet the ever-growing demand for service and to make the speed and quality of that service better than ever, we are engaged in the greatest improvement and expansion program in our history.

But the continued progress which makes your telephone worth more each year cannot be carried on without adequate income. Buildings, switchboards, cables and other equipment cost more today than ever before. Unless telephone rates are brought into line with current conditions, telephone progress will suffer.

That's why we sincerely feel that our asking the Public Service Commission for a revision of rates at this time is right in line with one of the continuing aims of your telephone company—seeing to it that the value of telephone service increases with each passing year.

How would the proposed changes affect Kingston?

We would like to tell you to the penny how the proposed changes would affect your own telephone bill. But there are so many types of service, and people use their telephones so differently, that there would not be room on this page to cover everybody. We can assure you, however, that the additional amount the average customer is likely to pay will be modest, as shown by the following:

RESIDENCE TELEPHONES. Home telephones in general would cost 50¢ more a month for party-line and rural service, and 75¢ more for individual line service.

BUSINESS TELEPHONES. The rate for an individual flat-rate line would go up $2.00 a month. Rural service would cost 75¢ more a month. A new individual line message-rate service at $5.25 a month for 75 messages would be introduced, and two-party flat-rate service would be withdrawn.

(These rates are exclusive of tax.)

N.M.U. Signifies Desire to Have Officers Sign Up

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—A majority of members of the C.I.O. National Maritime Union want their union officers to sign non-Communist oaths under provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

In a nationwide referendum, results of which were disclosed yesterday, the membership voted 13,039 to 4,120 in favor of the filing of the oaths.

Neal Hanley, union secretary-treasurer, said officers will sign the affidavits as soon as Joseph Curran, N.M.U. president, returns.

The N.M.U. leadership had strongly opposed filing the oaths as a condition for recognition by the National Labor Relations Board.

Curran himself had intimated a lawsuit to have the provision ruled unconstitutional. The lawsuit was turned down by a federal court on a technicality.

When the issue was put to a vote, however, Curran voiced support for the proposal. He said he still didn't like the provision, but he favored signing the oaths because unions which did not comply were injured.

Outcome of the N.M.U. vote marked another of a series of victories for Curran in his feud with a left-wing union faction.

Boy Is Chosen for Seals Sale

JAMES WEISHAUP

ROBERT BLOOMER

BARRY D. WOLVEN

It was announced from the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association office today that the committee of judges in the Christmas Seals Contest had selected James Joseph Weishaup, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weishaup of Stone Ridge and a pupil at St. Peter's School in Rosendale, as the town head boy with the greatest resemblance to the child on the 1948 Christmas Seal.

Second choice was Robert Bloomer, 7, of Highland, and third was Barry Donald Wolven, 6, of Saugerties.

James Weishaup, the winner, will sell the first two sheets of Christmas Seals to Santa Claus during the pageant at Union Ferry window in Kingston Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. Children from the Kingston High School will sing Christmas carols for the event.

The following children were also chosen for resemblance from the many entries for honorable mention: Albert Pinkerous, Ellenville; Richard Allen Frazer, Marlborough; Charles W. Beattie, Jr., Wallkill; Richard F. Derrenbacher, Kingston; David d'Albis, Woodstock; Jimmy Van Kleeck, New Paltz; and Ronald Wendt, Shokan.

All residents of Kingston and Ulster county will be mailed Christmas Seals which will be received November 22.

McGovern Says Bill Would Curb Interest Charges

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—State Senator J. Raymond McGovern says a law curbing interest charges on installment purchases will be pressed in the next legislative session.

McGovern, who heads a two-house body studying installment finance, outlined the proposed measure yesterday.

He said it aims primarily at preventing excessive financing charges in the automobile-selling field, and would cut interest rates to a fraction of those currently being charged.

New York has no law directly covering installment buying, he said, with the result being that it is possible to charge interest rates "as high as the traffic will bear."

The proposed law would limit the financing charge to one per cent each month on the amount remaining to be paid. In some cases, McGovern said, the charge has ranged up to a total of 529 per cent.

He said most of the abusive practices were in the automobile field. Sales contracts in other fields, such as furniture and jewelry, have been found by the committee to be generally fair, he said.

The committee, which investigated all forms of installment buying practices, and especially those which deal with automobile purchases, will hold a public hearing Dec. 2 in the hearing room of the Association of the Bar of New York. A further hearing, if necessary, will be held the following day.

Affects All Fields

In explaining the proposed bill at a news conference at the committee's headquarters, the Westchester senator said it "affects all installment sales fields, in sales $5,000 or under, where a security interest is retained in the property through conditional contracts or chattel mortgages."

The avowed purpose of the bill is "to insure adequate disclosure of the terms of the contract to the buyer" and to protect the buyer from "excessive" overcharges in interest rates.

McGovern said the main abuses are the practices of not allowing a buyer a sufficient refund when full payment is made in advance of the contract date without the credit service charge being completely used, and the lumping of the credit service and insurance charges. The proposed bill would alter both of these provisions in the personal property law.

Another change in sections of the personal property law, the lien law and the civil practice act, all of which would be affected, would increase the maximum price of goods governed by the laws, from $1,500 to $5,000.

Would Lessen Kickbacks

By controlling the rate of unearned finance charges where the contract was prepaid, the senator said, the practice of "kickbacks," especially in the automobile field, would be lessened.

This practice, whereby salesmen receive "kickbacks" from finance companies, is "universal," he said. "Forty per cent kickbacks are not uncommon," he added.

In its investigation of the automobile field, the committee has recovered "over $17,500" for defrauded buyers, when finance firms discovered their "mistakes," he said.

Patterned on the usury law, the proposed bill would provide what McGovern termed "a drastic penalty." Any violation of the bill's terms would render any contract between seller and buyer "unenforceable and void."

"The seller shall have no right to recover the goods which are the subject of the contract, nor the value thereof and the buyer may recover from the seller or owner of the contract all moneys paid by him thereunder," the bill states.

The senator said his committee has had the "full cooperation of all ethical sales groups" in the study.

Included are the New York State Automobile Dealers' Association, the New York City Used Car Dealers Association, the Association of Credit Jewelers, New York and New Jersey, and the Association of Furniture Dealers of New York.

Inasmuch as the surveys were conducted on a state-wide basis, McGovern said it was possible that public hearings would be held at a later date, in some upstate city, probably Buffalo.

Credits Are Due On Draft Calls

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Every community with volunteers in the armed services—and that means just about all communities—will be "credited" with the number of volunteers against its draft calls.

This was explained today by officials at Selective Service headquarters who said an inventory has been taken to establish the home town of every soldier, sailor, marine, airman, WAC, WAF and WAVE.

Cards with this information go directly from the camps and stations to State Selective Service directors who then can claim a credit against the state's draft quota.

At the same time the state directors will credit each of their local boards with the volunteers in the armed services when the inventory was taken, October 31.

The credits will be applied to future draft calls, the official explained—how soon state directors would be better able to estimate.

Here's how the system will work once all the cards are in:

Let's take Town "A" which has 100 men of draft age. Ten are already in the armed services and do not have to register.

The remaining 90 register and 60 of them pass physical examinations and are classed 1-A.

The town is given a quota, say, of five men. But it already has 10 men in the service, so if the draft call does not change, its credit takes care of two calls.

In the beginning, however, since no one knows how many credits each town will receive until the figures are in, town "A" will fill its quota and apply the credits later on.

So far as possible, the official pointed out, the states will work out the details with their local boards, with Selective Service headquarters staying in the background.

For that reason, the inventory cards are sent to the home states instead of Washington, and all breakdown of state figures will be made in the states.

A.F.L. Receives Proposal for Fund To Hit T-H Law

Cincinnati, Nov. 17 (AP)—A proposal to raise three quarters of a million dollars to be used in the fight for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act was placed before the American Federation of Labor convention today.

The committee directing policy for "Labor's League for Political Education" suggested to the 650 delegates that the A.F.L.'s 67th convention that they finance an educational program with an assessment of 10 cents a member.

The total membership of the A.F.L. on August 31 was 7,220,000.

The finance plan for the educational program—dating from next month through 1949—was the result of meetings of the administrative committee of the Political League.

The convention delegates were prepared to recess their own sessions today and assume the role of delegates to the Labor League. By so doing they will be able to vote a financial contribution to the league without conflicting with provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act on political contributions.

The A.F.L. leaders who planned the strategy did so to meet any legal problems arising under the act, despite the pledge of the convention and President Truman to wipe out the labor law.

Chief speakers scheduled by the A.F.L. for today's session were Cyrus S. Ching, head of the Conciliation Service, and Paul Hoffman, administrator for the Marshall Plan in Europe.

SAUGERTIES

Saugerties, Nov. 16—At the recent meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary there were 54 members present to witness the initiation of 32 new members. Among those present were Mrs. Anna Flanagan and Mrs. William Ribbsamen, two gold star mothers. The December meeting will be a Christmas party with Mrs. Sadie Underhill as chairman. Gifts will be sent to the veterans at Castle Point.

Mrs. William Rose, Mrs. James Wynne and Mrs. William Ziegler were in Albany as representatives of the local Legion Auxiliary attending the district conference. Dr. B. W. Gifford of Ulster avenue attended the International Medical Assembly of North America in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Gifford accompanied her husband.

Dr. Angela Morgan of Mt. Marion spent the past few days visiting in Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Myer and son of Liberty have returned home after visiting relatives in this village.

Brook Hannay and family of Washington avenue have moved to Staten Island where they will reside.

The annual Thanksgiving Day service will be held this year by the Saugerties Ministerial Association in the Saugerties Methodist Church on Washington avenue with the Rev. F. W. A. Sawitsky of Mt. Marion delivering the sermon.

Farm Bureau Signs 810 Members in Area

The Ulster County Farm Bureau today reported a total of 810 members signed up as the result of its current membership campaign.

The drive this year is considerably ahead of that a year ago for the same time of the month. In 1947 there were 698 members on November 18. The goal this year is 1,360 and it is hoped that the membership will reach this figure by the "round-up supper" scheduled for November 30.

A plaque will be presented to the community which turns in the largest number of memberships.

"House of Greed" and the second play will be "The Importance of Being Earnest" which is a comedy. There will be a musical entertainment before and during the intermission and a real evening of entertainment is promised.

The annual oyster supper of the Reformed Church of Blue Mountain will be held Friday at 6 p. m.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 17 (AP)—Sentencing of P. James Pellicchia, Jr., former police judge, who pleaded no defense to 21 counts covering $650,000 embezzlements from the Columbus Trust Co., has been deferred to December 8. The sentencing had been scheduled for today before Essex County Judge Joseph Conlon. Sentencing has been deferred several times on request of the Essex county prosecutor's office to permit conclusion of investigations in connection with the Pellicchia case. Pellicchia entered his no defense plea September 21.

Rumors are flying about a reorganization of President Truman's cabinet, following his surprise victory. Some of the most frequently mentioned changes are pictured above. Secretary of State Marshall supposedly wishes to resign, with Krug, Forrestal and Sawyer believed on the way out, since they failed to campaign vigorously for the President's re-election. Douglas, now ambassador to England, and Acheson, former undersecretary of state, are leading candidates for Marshall's job, with Undersecretary of State Robert Lovett, Justice William O. Douglas and Chief Justice Fred Vinson also mentioned. However, Secretary Marshall has issued a formal statement, denying that he plans to resign January 20. Many other names have been advanced, but these men are favored.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Nov. 16—Arthur Myers of New Jersey, a former resident of Shokan, is numbered among the out-of-town hunters who are here for the deer season. Arthur's old home is the present Robert Hartley place on The Trail.

The late Albert J. Warren, Phoenicia man whose burial took place Thursday in Helder Cemetery, formerly was well known here. For several years he drove the truck of Henry Boice who was Standard Oil Company distributor in the upper Esopus Valley. West bound night travel on the Ontario Trail was very heavy over the week-end. One villager who slept fitfully because of so many cars whizzing past the house, opined "All New York city must have been headed for the mountains Saturday night." Even around Shokan there were many more red caps than white tails in evidence on Monday, the only taking reported on the opening day being the buck shot by a Kingston hunter named Maines, who bagged his deer near the railroad viaduct and only a few hundred feet from the village center.

Looking Backward

Wednesday, Nov. 17, 1915: Mr. and Mrs. Elva H. Bogart, formerly of Olive and Mrs. T. D. Abrams left Kingston to attend the state automobile association convention. Members of Prof. Clyde Van Stemburgh's dancing class at Stone Ridge visited Kingston to attend the assembly dance of the professor's classes at Fythian Hall, Wall and John streets. Woodstock—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shults of Bearville who went to the San Francisco Exposition and toured the west, have returned home. 24 cases of measles reported in town of Woodstock. Tabasco—W. H. Gorseline has sold a yoke of oxen to Came Lasher of Woodstock. West Hurley—J. H. Joyce has accepted the agency of the Cold Brook station of the U. & D. R. and will move there in the near future.

Boiceville Beulah when told by a neighbor woman that "your husband seems to be possessed of a remarkable constitution," replied, "Yes, indeed, and you should see him lay down the by-laws, rules and regulations, too!" Betty Gruber, one of Wall Street's best known business women, was a guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elmendorf.

Having a Birthday

Natal anniversaries this week include those of Mrs. Murray

Slavin, Shokan, and Dorothy Byrne of Ashokan, both on Saturday, November 20. Catherine Slavin was born at Utica, daughter of William W. and Anna (Bushnell) Walker. She attended Utica schools and Mt. Sinai Hospital school of nursing in New York. A registered nurse, she is a member of the New York State Nursing Association. She likes gardening, needlecraft and square dancing. Mrs. Slavin, who has also resided in Germantown, Hartsdale and Williston Park, and her husband came here in 1944 to make their home on the mountain road. Dorothy Byrne, one of the lower village's popular young women, was born in New York and came here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Byrne, several years ago. She attends the Ashokan Methodist Church and is a senior at Kingston High School.

Around the Town: Alonzo "Lon" Haver, local Ford agent for many years and one of Olive's oldest and best known citizens, had the misfortune the latter part of the week to cut his hand pretty badly while splitting wood.

Members of the Ashokan basketball squad at their opening game this evening will be resplendent in classy new crimson and white uniforms, secured through the generosity of 10 local sponsors, each of whose name is properly indited in large letters upon the back of one of the players.

Jes Browns' Around

Most everyone finds something of interest in the classified columns of a newspaper, and there's a story behind many a for sale or want ad that would make mighty interesting reading, were it whipped into shape by some modern O. Henry with a flare for weaving humor and pathos into a yarn with an atomic climax. Take the one in The Freeman the other evening—"Pace evictions—consider anything from isolated farmhouse to hollow tree." There is a fellow who is willing to sleep standing-up for the sake of a home; and this columnist, for one, hopes he finds something much better than that, in the way of an abode. Here's a good one, regarding a farm auction near Oneonta and Unadilla: "Important—no false bidders. Every cow and every item will have a new papa at this auction. 53 Holsteins. This same herd has produced up to 59 cans a day. Former owner says there are some that will milk up to 80 pounds. Boy! Oh-Boy! We think this is one of the milkiest, juiciest high grade dairies and the healthiest udders between Albany and Binghamton." (Be fun to go up to that sale, just to hear that auctioneer). Here's another: "Lost—a bobbed tail hound in Bovina. Name on collar, Carl Smith, Harrisburg, Ky." Ol' hound dog was far from home, no wonder he got lost. And what do those Kaintuck trackers wag for a tail, dye suppose? The hound is a real man's dog—the ideal outdoor and fireside mutt—lazy, affectionate, aromatic, intelligent, flea-ridden and with a thumping 'big tail which seems never to be still. Poor old Kentucky hound say we, feebly wagging the stump of a caudal appendage that ought to be banging happily against somebody's shins!

Chennault Has No Plans
New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Although many American pilots have offered to join such a venture, Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault says he has no plans for reorganizing his "Flying Tigers" to aid China's embattled nationalists. His statement was made last night in Shanghai in an American Broadcasting Company interview. Many fliers have applied for such duty, he said, but "I have received no request from Chiang Kai-Shek for the reorganization of the Flying Tigers, and no move has been made in that direction." Chennault, who in pre-Pearl Harbor days trained the volunteer "Flying Tigers" to help China fight the Japanese, now runs a commercial air line in China.

Uses Women's Gossip

London (AP)—Talkative women can be very useful in helping Britons understand how to achieve economic recovery, says Sir Stafford Cripps, the nation's economics minister. Addressing a recent meeting of labor party and trade union women, Sir Stafford smilingly noted: "It may be that men are wrong in accusing women of being gossips, but from the point of view of putting across the true story of our problems, our efforts and our successes, who can do it better than the woman in those casual and intimate talks that she has with friends?"

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

MORAL PRINCIPLES COME FIRST

There is a very definite exception to the rule as indicated in the following letter: "What to serve at my wedding reception is my big problem, because neither my parents nor my fiancé's family approve of anything that has alcohol in it. But I think plain lemonade at a wedding reception is pretty thin for drinking toasts, don't you? Also, I am sure many guests will expect something stronger. If there is a rule of etiquette that requires hosts to consider their guests first, would you please put it in writing so that I can use it to influence my parents?"

Although it is true that hosts are expected to think first of their guests, this does not apply when a question of moral principle is involved. I do not think you should try to influence your parents and, furthermore, I doubt that you could succeed. The friends and relatives of both families must know that your family is opposed to alcohol and, therefore, they will not expect it. I think, though, that sparkling white grape juice or any fruit punch made with carbonated water would seem more wedding-like than flat lemonade.

Keeping Fraternity Pin
Dear Mrs. Post: May a girl keep a man's fraternity pin after their romance has cooled off? A fraternity pin is not exactly the same as an engagement ring or is it?

Answer: I don't know about the custom in every fraternity, but in a certain few, it does mean an engagement. In any case, a girl would be expected to return the pin—in fact, she would be much criticized for not doing so.

Ahavath Israel Ball Chairman Attends Social For Entertainment Managers; Sees 26 Acts

Desiring to continue his reputation as a connoisseur of theatrical talent, H. G. Rafalowsky, chairman of Ahavath Israel's "Thanksgiving eve ball" attended the recent social of the Entertainment Managers' Association in the Hotel Astor, New York.

He and two other Kingstonians were the guests of N. M. Abramson, head of WOR Entertainment Bureau, at the event in the Grand Ballroom, where 26 vaudeville acts were presented before an assembly of 500 managers, agents, talent scouts and others interested in attractions for stage, screen, radio and television.

Chairman Rafalowsky attended the event to select acts for Ahavath Israel's ball to be presented in the municipal auditorium on Wednesday night, November 24. "It was the greatest array of first-class entertainment artists I've ever seen on one stage," he remarked. Moe Schwartz one of his committeemen and Joe Kelly of The Freeman agreed with him.

X-ray Unit Will Be at Auditorium

City and county residents who are employed in the mid-town area are notified that the mobile X-ray unit of the New York State Department of Health will be located on Thursday and Friday, November 18 and 19, at the municipal auditorium and will operate between the hours of 12 noon to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. each evening.

In making the announcement indicating the temporary change of hours, Dr. George James, Ulster county commissioner of health, stated that the purpose of operating an additional hour was arranged in order to give sufficient time for persons employed in the area to get free chest X-rays during lunch hours.

To date, 11,933 persons have taken advantage of this free health service since October 4, according to Katherine M. Murphy, R. N. executive secretary of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Esopus Township Young People Organize Teen-Age Club to Meet in Port Ewen Hall

Port Ewen, Nov. 17.—The second meeting of the new teen-age club will be held in the fire house Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The organization was formed at a meeting last Friday. The club will be open for all teen-age young people in the town of Esopus.

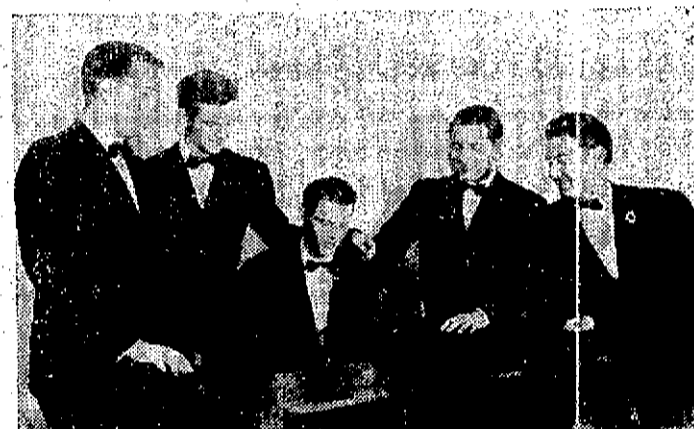

The object of the club is to provide recreation such as dancing, shuffle board, ping pong and other activities for young people. The programs will be arranged by the teen-agers with their parents assisting in supervising.

Tentative plans are to meet Friday nights at the Town Hall. However, because of the movie night this week, the meeting will be held tomorrow night in the fire house.

At last week's meeting Amasa Smith, member of the Port Ewen School Board and one of the interested adults, introduced Charles Elmendorf of Rifton, who has worked with young people in his community. He spoke of the formation of the Port Ewen club.

Temporary officers elected were Robert Rice, president; Miss Josephine Smith, vice president; Miss Ronald Rodden, secretary; Peter Lemister, treasurer. A temporary board of directors was also chosen.

High School Football Squad Awaits Verdict on Rienzo Thursday

Ace Halfback May Miss Turkey Day Game at Newburgh

The Kingston High School football squad which still has to beat Newburgh Free Academy on Thanksgiving Day to cinch the 1948 DUSO League pennant will get the answer to the $64 question tomorrow.

Will Mike Rienzo, veteran left halfback, be able to start? That's the question and a mighty important one in the Maroon's designs for the future.

Rienzo has been laid up with bursitis of the right thigh since the Poughkeepsie game and it's no secret that Kingston missed him in the Port Jervis debacle. His presence might have been the difference. No club has been able to stop Mike's devastating cut-backs this season.

Will Not Be Rushed

Captain Bill Burke said this morning that Rienzo has been in school the last two days after spending several days confined to his home. The school physician will make a final examination of the injury tomorrow and then announce his decision.

"We'll be guided by the doctor's decision," Burke said. "If the doctor says it's okay to use Mike and Mike himself is willing, we'll see if he can whip himself into shape for the Newburgh game. However, we are not going to rush the kid into action just for the sake of a ball game."

Academy Back Critical

Meanwhile word from Newburgh is that Frank Coulard, Academy halfback injured in the Peekskill game is still on the critical list at St. Luke's Hospital.

Coulard apparently suffered a charley horse against Peekskill and was removed from the game. He returned home and the next day attended church services. Shortly after he collapsed and was rushed to a hospital where his condition was described as critical and he spent several days under an oxygen tent. Doctors described the injury as internal hemorrhages of the left leg and thigh.

Greek-Canada Duo Lead Six-Day Whirl

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Greek-Canadian team of Henri Surbats and Rene Cyr late last night forged into the lead by one lap over the nine other teams in the International six-day bicycle race being held at the 22nd Regiment Armory.

The lead see-sawed often during the night. First there were two teams in the lead, then three, and finally only one.

The standings at 2 a. m. (E.S.T.) — 53rd hour.

Teams	Laps Behind	Pts.
Surbats - Cyr	Leaders	148
Georgetti - Morretti	1	297
Diggelman - Koblet	1	228
Bergna - De Bacco	1	199
LeTourner - Crillo	1	190
De Corte - Maebrique	1	119
Grauss - Bransgrove	2	144
Yacino - Pesek	2	73
Anderson - Jacoby	3	79
Audy - Smith	3	71

Distance covered by leaders — 815 miles and 3 laps.

Hogan Greatest Golfer of Day - Robinson

Telegram Writer Rates Bantam Ben Among Immortals

Ben Hogan, a golfer who had to overcome the handicap of size, weight and early poverty, is the greatest linksman of the modern era, Lawrence Robinson, World-Telegram golf writer, told 125 persons last night at the first annual Kingston City Golf Dinner at the Stuyvesant Hotel.

Robinson, one of the nation's foremost golf and football authorities, was principal speaker at the dinner which was a testimonial honoring Maurice Davenport of Wiltwyck, the 1948 city match champion.

Receives Trophy
Davenport, who gave Wiltwyck Club its third straight city title with a 3 and 2 victory over John Van Gonsic, was presented with a trophy. The Wiltwyck Club received the permanent plaque on which are inscribed the names of the past city champions.

Speakers introduced by the toastmaster, Charles J. Tiano, were John Van Gonsic, Twaalfskill's retiring president and city finalist; District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn, Wiltwyck president; and Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk. President Bruhn made the presentation to Davenport, who was choked up with emotion as he responded with a few words of thanks.

The toastmaster also introduced the past city champions, Roy Vogt and Billy Van Aken; Alex Gerlek, Twaalfskill pro; Dick Davenport and Jimmy Winters, Class B and C handicap champions respectively of Wiltwyck; and Dr. Robert F. Koseley, Class B handicap champion at Twaalfskill. Also seated at the speaker's table were Arthur A. Davis, vice-president of Wiltwyck and Dick McCarthy, WKNY sportscaster. Ralph K. Ballard and Stan Winne, the club secretaries, also took a bow.

Had Best Equipment
Robinson declared that for sheer consistency, all-round equipment, strokes and temperament Hogan outstripped the modern field and that included Lord Byron Nelson, Jimmy Demarest, Sammy Snead and the others.

After tracing Hogan's early career, Robinson said it was Bantam Ben's insatiable desire to be a great golfer that carried him to stardom. Even after he hit the big time in 1933 with a victory Hogan was the master perfectionist.

Robinson described Hogan as a golfer who has the best all-round equipment in the game, a perfectionist who would spend hours on the practice tee right after winning a major tournament.

High On Army
His digressed to football and spoke glowingly of the 1948 Army football squad which he rated on a par with Michigan and Notre Dame. He brushed off the weekly Associated Press poll as not being a real gauge on the respective merits of the teams. He hinted that given a chance, the North Carolina Tarheels would play any of the triumvirate to a standstill.

L. B. Reid Retained
New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Lloyd B. Reid, traffic engineer and former member of the city traffic commission in Detroit, has been retained as consultant to officials preparing city legislation to set up a traffic commission here. Mayor William O'Dwyer announced the appointment last night.

Y Cagers Run Wild

High scoring fever gripped Y Autumn League basketballs last night with two topheavy scores rolled up.

Wiltwyck Motors went on a rampage against Fuller Sports to pile up a spectacular 81-40 margin for a new seasonal record, while Sickler's Delivery crushed Belcher's Studebakers, 66-37.

In the one game with a semblance of sanity, W.G.B. Clarifiers prevailed over Governor Clinton Hotel, 47-44, after nearly blowing a 10-point halftime lead.

Van Wageningen Is Ace
Three players passed the 20 mark in scoring as Don Van Wageningen of W.G.B. tossed in 24 against the Clintons. Hunt of Wiltwycks poured in 22, while Jeff Brannen of Fuller's registered 21.

Other double figure scorers were Murphy 14, Bloom 13, Sickler's, McCordle 16, Belcher's; Nellis 10, W.G.B.; Marable 14, Clintons; Lindhorst 19, Sickler 17, Glaser 14, Wiltwycks; Dunham 15, Fullers.

Principals at City Golf Dinner

The speaker's table at the first annual Kingston City Golf Dinner overflowed with golf dignitaries and personalities last night at the Stuyvesant Hotel. The upper group shows, in the usual order, Arthur A. Davis, vice-president of Wiltwyck; Maurice Davenport, 1948 city champion who beat John Van Gonsic 3 and 2 for the title; Lawrence Robinson, World-Telegram golf specialist, who was principal speaker and Charles J. Tiano, Freeman sports editor and toastmaster. Lower group: District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn, Wiltwyck president; Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, John Van Gonsic, Twaalfskill president and Dick McCarthy of WKNY. (Freeman Photo)

Bowling

Week-end bowling was highlighted by the two best female triples of the season with Rose Schatzel and Rita Frederick sharing the laurels.

Mrs. Schatzel posted a seasonal record in the abbreviated Ferraro Mixer schedule with a rousing 233 single and 537 triple. Mrs. Frederick was not far behind with 229-578 blast in the Central Mixed.

Schatzel's scores were 233-179-175-587, while Frederick posted 193-156-229-578. Both are big league performances and for Mrs. Frederick it was the climax to a string of outstanding triples.

Other High Scores
Joe Enright knocked off 215-593 to pace the Central Mixer. Ken Radel had 195-509; Mitzie Arlensky 184-523; Ralph Mayone 195-554; John Sangi 210-580; John Frederick 200-545; Mary Bonacci 178-485; Jake Chichelsky 202-560; Dick Flash; Howard 177-512; Jim Daniels 207-526; Marie Kelen 175-472; Evelyn Francis 182-487.

M. Restino bashed 184-529 in the Ferraro Mixer. Ben Krom achieved a 200-493 series; Hank Bailey 208-490; Betty Bailey 185-499 and W. Murray 186-510.

Jack Hartman's 106 created most noise but Cliff Davis, Sr. again bagged high triple honors in the Independent loop. The Port Ewen pounder clipped games of 205-185-200 for 590.

Ross Ellis posted 203-558; Harry Jump 215; Bobby Jones 204-569; Eddie Marks 205-573; Rudy Kubcek 213-562; Harry Cornish 221-519; J. Davis 202; M. E. Cole 205-550; Milt Cole 210; Roland Post 227-549.

Nick Huber, the old curveball specialist of the old City Baseball League, had a clean margin in the Freeman loop with a rousing 221 single and 526. John Dittus Jr. was runnerup with 190-503.

Irving Levine got off to a fast start with 206-212 in the Good Neighbor League and finished with the leading series of 569. Hal "688" Tirsch was not far behind with 195-562.

Other high scores included Max Chirlin's 211-557; Mike Levy 210-547; Ben Orkoff 223-536; Phil Levy 219-549; J. Blinder 209; Jacobs 212-401 (double).

Tommy Berardi (cousin) was top man in the City Minor loop with smooth consistency that accounted for 190-180-189-559. Frankie Neron of the same Mauro Tavern club was not far behind with 202-548.

Mitzie Arlensky shot 212-503; Bud Evans 192-543; Ralph Mayone 180-511; H. Sleight 201-520; Joe Dulin 197-512; Ward DuBois 188-513; J. Provenzano 212-507; R. Schneider 189-513; Mike Amato 238-537; J. Misasi 189-515; Jim Pruden 187-523; Len Freer 204-535; K. Radel 190-505.

Tommy Berardi (cousin) was top man in the City Minor loop with smooth consistency that accounted for 190-180-189-559. Frankie Neron of the same Mauro Tavern club was not far behind with 202-548.

The Old Blues and Crimsons Await 'The Only Game of the Year'

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 17 (AP)—The 65th Harvard-Yale football game Saturday—the only "game of the year"—to Old Blues and old Crimsons—looms as a scoring contest and the young men of Harvard are confident they can fashion their first triumph over the Bull Dog since 1941.

New coaches will be directing the proceedings but the rest of this Ivy draped classic which began in 1875 will be like a church wedding, the same as ever but ever new.

And there'll be some 55,000 in the stadium which was christened in 1903. It will be the first time since 1919 that both Harvard and Yale have had new coaches at the same time in this traditional classic.

Art Valpey, debonair and thoughtful young mentor of the Crimson, insists his team will score. "We'll make the ball go," he says.

Cantabs Confident
He made a similar statement just before Harvard opened its season and the Crimson hopefuls, absorbing a new system, surprised football peccans by dumping Columbia.

True, the Crimson has taken its share of beatings but this team has the faculty of bouncing back. It has a high morale and is offensive minded. Its outened if Ford Nadermy, its best punting back, is unable to play. But it has two passing threats in Levi Jackson and Tex Furse. Jackson, also a great kicker, is as deft in getting off a long pass as he is at running and he is a top runner.

Crude Power
Cattle were made to pull crude plows with their tails as late as 1861.

Greasewood, a low plant used by sheepherders and campers on the plains as a quick-burning fuel, is a common shrub in Wyoming.

Columbus, Ohio in Dither About Michigan-Ohio State Skirmish

Columbus, O., Nov. 17 (AP)—The capital of the sovereign state of Ohio is going into its annual Michigan game dither—this time with extra zip.

The tom-toms are beating with fervor if not conviction—"beat Michigan, beat Michigan," all along High Street from the campus through downtown.

All it means is that the Ohio State University Buckeyes meet the Michigan Wolverines—generally regarded as the nation's No. 1 team—this Saturday. The Buckeyes go into the game with the odds against them. Pools around town are spotting the Buckeyes 14 points.

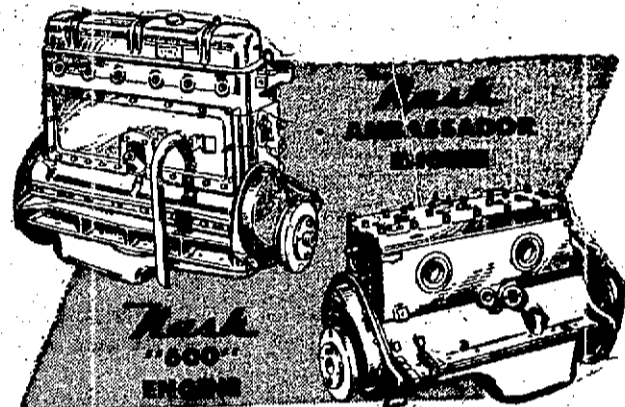

Coch Wesley Fesler himself, who brought the Buckeyes up from nowhere last season to a telescope shot at the Rose Bowl, says that on paper, the Buckeyes

"don't even belong on the same field with them."

Fesler Confident
"But," Fesler told a homecoming banquet last night, "there is something more to the game and that is attitude. Our team has that. No one can convince me that our boys don't have a chance."

So, the Buckeyes await the game with the idea that if Truman could do it, why can't they? Possibly 85,000 people will see whether they can in the big Ohio stadium with its official capacity of 76,677. Both Mutual and N.B.C. networks are going to carry the full game to other thousands from coast to coast.

What the game seems to boil down to is that the Western Conference's best passing squad comes to town to meet the second best pass defense team.

Prisoner Charged With Murder in Slaying of Jailer

Elizabethtown, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—One of the prisoners who escaped Monday night from Essex county jail was charged today with first degree murder in the slaying of a jailer.

Sheriff John P. Crowley said Edmund Hart, 21, of Keeseville had admitted hitting the jailer, Earl Torrence, 64, to effect an escape from the jail.

Crowley said Hart in a signed statement had named William Moody, 31, of Saranac Lake as his accomplice in the killing. Moody still is at large.

Hart, who was captured last night on a street in the Adirondack village of Keene Valley, waived examination when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace William A. Knowlton.

Crowley quoted Hart as saying he and Moody used a 10-inch iron bar to slug the jailer. Police were unable to learn where the bar had been obtained.

Hart told police he and Moody had separated yesterday near the village of Keene and he had proceeded over the mountain to Keene Valley, a village 18 miles west of here.

Meanwhile, the search for Moody continued over a vast area. Forty-five troopers and eight sheriff's aides were detailed to the hunt.

Torrence was found dead of a crushed skull Monday night in a second floor hallway near the open gate into the cell block where Moody and Hart had been confined.

The sheriff said the prisoners had lured Torrence to the cell block and had attacked him.

Hart was awaiting trial on burglary charges and Moody, on a grand larceny charge.

The New Governors

Des Moines, Nov. 17 (AP)—Iowans voted for a Democratic president and a Republican governor, first time this has happened since 1912.

The man who turned the trick is William S. Beardsley, a 47-year-old small town druggist who gave state pollsters a bitter jolt in the G.O.P. primaries last spring.

In the primaries Beardsley ran without the blessing of the regular Republican organization. He turned in a thumping surprise victory over Gov. Robert D. Blue.

Beardsley won the primaries with the support of organized labor, the Iowa Farm Bureau, and the State Teachers' Association. This strength stayed with him in his successful general election contest with Democrat Carroll O. Switzer, Des Moines public prosecutor.

Beardsley won labor's aid by opposing two labor-restrictive measures while serving in the Iowa house of the 1947 Iowa legislature.

He enlisted the backing of farmers and teachers by urging a higher state income tax as a replacement for property taxes and as a source for more state aid to schools. Although he recognizes the support he got from these various blocs, Beardsley says "I am not the candidate of any group."

Analyzing his Nov. 2 victory, Beardsley said: "I think the popularity of my campaign in the primary carried through the general election. The people stayed with me."

This was no overstatement. After giving the Democratic senatorial candidate a victory margin of 165,000 votes, Iowans moved down to the next place on the ballot and elected Beardsley by 135,000 votes.

Beardsley's wife and young son, Dan, 14, live in a comfortable farm home near the little town of New Virginia, not far from Des Moines. Several years ago Beardsley turned operation of his drug store over to a son-in-law and concentrated on management of his 900 acres.

Woodstock Artists Paintings Are in Whitney Exhibit

New York, Nov. 16. (Special)—Paintings by nine artists of Woodstock and vicinity have been selected by the Whitney Museum of American Art for inclusion in its 1948 exhibition of contemporary American painting.

Eight of the artists—Paul Burlin represented by "Epiphany of the Hero," Edward Chavez who shows "Taxidermist's Window," Philip Guston whose "The Tormenters" was selected, Howard Mandel with "Celestial Dilemma," Fletcher Martin represented by "Old Quarry," Henry E. Mattson showing "Three Apples," Anton Refregier with "Discovery of Gold," and Denny Winters whose "Susanna and the Elders"—are from Woodstock. The ninth, Dorothy Varian, whose "Studio" is exhibited, is from Beardsley.

The showing contains samples of work by 160 of the nation's most prominent painters, representing 21 states. The paintings were chosen to portray all the prevailing tendencies in American art, the museum explains.

The exhibition, which has just opened here, will continue to January 2.

"typical or representative of the average dealer."

All complaints against dealers, he said, are fully investigated by the company and dealers know they can lose their contracts at the end of a year.

"We have tried to do a job of policing the field," he said.

A.A.A. Asks Discipline: San Antonio, Nov. 17 (AP)—The American Automobile Association Referee today asked that discipline dealers found guilty of gray market practices.

This could be done, the association said in a resolution adopted at its 46th Annual Convention yesterday, by "revocation of franchise or otherwise."

ness. Curtailed production and distribution of good resulted.

Steamship companies were laying off officers and seamen of strikebound craft, retaining stand-by crews only. The railroad embargo on freight destined for foreign or coastwise shipment continued.

William Margolis, assistant to Cyrus S. Ching, head of the U. S. Mediation and Conciliation Service, was due here today. He was scheduled to confer with I.L.A. President Joseph P. Ryan, whose union struck in a pay dispute with the steelworkers' employers.

President Truman told newsmen at Key West, Fla., yesterday that he is "powerless under the Taft-Hartley Act to intervene in the strike. The dispute already had gone through a Taft-Hartley "cooling-off" period before the strike was called.

Affects Imports: M. D. Griffith, executive vice-president of the New York Board of Trade, said the strike is affecting $25,000,000 worth of imports and exports normally moved through the port of New York each day.

Airline officials reported increased business on overseas lines. Economic Cooperation Administration officials estimated that the strike is delaying shipment of 20,000 tons a day of high-quality cargoes exclusive of thousands of tons of coal and grain ordered under the Marshall Plan.

There has been no announced move by the steelworkers' employers to raise their pay offer which was rejected by the dock workers. The employers had agreed to pay increases of ten and 15 cents an hour, raising the day-shift straight-time pay from $1.75 to $1.85 an hour and the night and weekend overtime rate from $2.62 to $2.77 1/2 an hour. The union is demanding a rise of 50 cents an hour.

Campbell said in his Halifax announcement: "I am in no position to state the reaction in New York to this (work resumption) decision. However, I never knew of the I.L.A. taking any action to break either its agreement or the laws of its country."

Under Canadian Act: The Halifax longshoremen, he explained, come under a Canadian federal labor act which "prevents stoppages of work and strikes until proper conciliation proceedings have been gone through."

The liner Mauretania sailed from Halifax for Southampton, England, on schedule last night. The ship, one of several diverted from New York, left with 400 passengers and mail, but no cargo.

In New York, James P. McAllister, spokesman for the New York Towboat Exchange, said haulage in the harbor here is "pretty well tied up," although the tugboat workers are not on strike. He said about 1,500 tug and towing men—half the personnel in the harbor—are idle.

New York Postmaster Albert Goldman said mail is piling up in post office vaults here. He estimated 50,000 sacks of mail, including many European relief parcels, are piled up. He said, however, that food and mail for the armed forces overseas are moving on army ships without delay.

The latest U. S. Maritime Commission figures listed 179 vessels strike-bound on the east coast. The figure was growing as more ships arrived from foreign ports. Passengers had to carry their own luggage, and cargoes were not touched.

At the request of New Jersey business men, Mayor Frank Hague Eggers of Jersey City offered his services yesterday to New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer and Ryan in attempting to settle the strike.

The first layoffs of railroad employees were on the New York Central, the New Haven and the New Jersey Central.

Joseph Adelizzi, managing director of the Motor Carriers Association of New York, estimated that at least 2,500 trucks that handle freight consigned to piers have been idled here. Layoffs of drivers and helpers total about 2,000, he said. Spokesmen for the A. F. of M. International Brotherhood of Teamsters estimated the number nearer to 3,500 men.

Largest Christmas Tree: Los Angeles, Nov. 17 (AP)—This city, which has a penchant for superlatives, now boasts it will have the largest Christmas tree ever cut in the U. S. The Downtown Business Men's Association specified that the tree, to be erected in Pershing Square, tops the 80-foot tree erected in New York's Rockefeller Center in 1937.

The U. S. Forest Service found one yesterday in Angeles National Forest, 50 miles away. The tree, more than 80 feet high, was due here today for immediate trimming.

De Gaulle Says Reich May Not Oppose Reds

Paris, Nov. 17 (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle said today the western powers are creating a new Germany that might not be willing to oppose Russia.

Turning the Ruhr coal mines and steel mills back into the hands of the Germans, he added, is "the gravest decision made so far during the 20th century."

De Gaulle told newsmen that not only the British and Americans, but the Russians as well are trying to create a united Germany.

The general repeated his demand that France should hold new general elections, and charged that the centrist government parties were keeping themselves in power in the face of popular sentiment that they get out.

Fishbein Attacks Health Insurance

Boston, Nov. 17 (AP)—Compulsory health insurance was described today by a nationally known medical expert as "a move toward Communism."

Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, said that voluntary hospital insurance plans are "far better suited" to this nation.

Speaking at a health forum at the Harvard School of Public Health last night, he said:

"Political leaders deny that nationwide compulsory sickness insurance is socialized medicine; yet the result is a socialized state. At the same time that they oppose Communism they move toward it by embracing Socialism."

He said that the service furnished in Britain's socialized medical program would never be satisfactory to the average American laborer or farmer.

Reply Is Published: Moscow, Nov. 17 (AP)—Moscow newspapers published prominently, without comment today, Russia's reply to the L. E. Watt proposal to the United Nations for a Big Four meeting on the Berlin deadlock. No account has been published here yet of President Truman's statement yesterday rejecting such a meeting until the Soviet blockade of Berlin is lifted.

Donora Survivors Get Special Week

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 17 (AP)—This coastal city was brushing off its welcome mat today for 50 survivors of the death-dealing smog that covered Donora, Pa., October 30.

The Pennsylvanians will fly here tomorrow for a week's vacation. They'll be guests of the Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach Junior Chambers of Commerce which are underwriting all expenses, including the airline fares.

The vacationers will be given a big welcome by Wilmington civic officials when they arrive. After that, they'll settle down in cottages at nearby Wrightsville Beach.

Far removed from the fatal mixture of fog and smoke that killed 20 of their fellow townsmen, they'll breathe in brisk ocean breezes as they fish, boat ride, tour nearby plantations and attend oyster roasts.

At Donora, last night, Miss Elizabeth Ostrander, secretary of the Donora Board of Health, said that those who suffered most will make the trip.

Ahavath Israel Ball Stars

This quartet, the "Beachcombers", is with Johnny Long's orchestra which plays for the 12th annual Ahavath Israel Ball, Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday, November 24, in the Kingston Municipal Auditorium. The three male members are Jerry Graff, Al Gross and Bill Shepherd. Natalie Alesna Shepherd, petite Hawaiian miss, is the fourth vocalist. She met the boys while they were touring the Pacific area with a special service group during the war, and joined them. Bill Shepherd married the beautiful little lady of Spanish and Filipino descent. The quartet is a sure hit, wherever Johnny Long plays. Thumbnail sketches of the individuals: Natalie—Started singing at 15; did a daily

Rent Board Holds Meeting at Po'keepsie

The 13th meeting of the Poughkeepsie Defense-Rental Advisory Board was held Friday in the Poughkeepsie Area Rent Office, 13 Washington street, Poughkeepsie. Present were William M. Hadden of Poughkeepsie, chairman, Mrs. Arthur C. Trautz of Highland Falls, Arthur J. Burns of Kingston, Harold N. Coine of Newburgh, and Terence Newsome of Newburgh.
Several cases of landlords and tenants pertaining to individual rent problems were reviewed. A proposal regarding small landlords' clinics for the purpose of instructing and assisting landlords with Short Hardship Petition Form D-58A, which was presented by the Area Rent Director, Charles C. Hoag, was discussed by the Board. This petition form was devised for small landlords who own four or less rental dwelling units with no part being used for commercial purposes and who cannot submit bills or receipts for all expenses on the property. It requires landlords to submit receipts, bills or signed statements from departments or companies concerned only for taxes, fuel, utilities and insurance and is used to petition for an adjustment of rent because of substantial hardship.

Halcott Center Is Second Winner in Big Grange Contest

Pine Plains, Nov. 17—A New York State Grange placed second in a nation-wide competition sponsored by the National Grange and the Sears Foundation; Henry D. Sherwood, master of the State Grange, announced here today.

The Green Valley Grange of Halcott Center, was awarded second place over nearly 1,400 Granges in 37 states competing in a community service contest, the first of its kind ever to be held on a national basis.

The contest's objective, attained by almost every Grange that competed, called for building a better community in which to work and live. Projects carried out by Grange contestants centered around community clean-up campaigns, soil conservation, building rural telephone lines, home beautification, community meeting halls and recreations centers.

The second place award, which included $1,500, in Grange hall equipment, was given to the Greene Valley Grange for its outstanding work in building a community meeting and dining center, constructing ponds for fire protection, building a cemetery vault and conducting cow testing work.

Of equal importance, in the opinion of the contest's judges, was the teamwork which the Greene Valley Grange achieved, welding the entire community of 300 persons into a group which is working, playing and living together more closely than ever before.

First place in the National Grange-Sears Foundation competition, a completely equipped Grange Hall was awarded to the Schley Grange near Raleigh, N. C., while third place went to the Indian Trail Grange in Indiana.

In New York state, largest of all the Grange states, 140 local Granges participated in the contest, which will be held again in 1949.

Under the direction of Robert Johnson, master of the Greene Valley Grange, and Mrs. Ola Scudder, chairman of the contest committee, 109 of the local Grange's 136 members worked many hundreds of hours in carrying out the projects.

Pitching Horseshoes By Billy Rose

Mr. Tom Girdler, Chairman, Republic Steel Corp., Cleveland, Ohio
Dear Mr. G.:
A few years back, Readers Digest ran a story about an old Chinese garden and the inscription on a plaque set in one of its walls—"ENJOY YOURSELF—IT'S LATER THAN YOU THINK." And, as you probably remember, this little piece darn near disrupted our national economy,—for months after it appeared, scared executives were pricing one-way tickets to Tahiti.

Today I received an 8-by-11 chunk of mimeographing that's even more frightening than the Digest article. It came in an envelope postmarked "San Francisco" and was sent by Louis Lurie, a real estate man who is reputed to be worth several dozen million dollars. Without further fulminations, and with Mr. Lurie's permission, here's the tract in full.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

In 1923, a group of the world's most successful financiers met at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago. Present were:
The president of the largest independent steel company.
The president of the largest utility company.
The greatest wheat speculator.

The president of the New York Stock Exchange.
A member of the President's cabinet.
The greatest "bear" in Wall Street.
The president of the Bank of International Settlements.
The head of the world's greatest monopoly.

Collectively, these tycoons controlled more wealth than there was in the United States Treasury, and for years newspapers and magazines had been printing their success stories and urging the youth of the nation to follow their examples. Twenty-five years later, let's see what happened to these men.
The president of the largest independent steel company—Charles Schwab—lived on borrowed money the last five years of his life, and died broke.
The greatest wheat speculator—Arthur Cullen died abroad, insolvent.

The president of the New York Stock Exchange—Richard Whitney—was recently released from Sing Sing.
The member of the President's cabinet—Albert Fall—was pardoned from prison so he could die at home.
The greatest "bear" in Wall Street—Jesse Livermore—committed suicide.

The president of the Bank of International Settlements—Leon Fraser—committed suicide.
The head of the world's greatest monopoly—Ivar Kreuger—committed suicide.

ALL OF THESE MEN HAD LEARNED HOW TO MAKE MONEY, BUT NOT ONE OF THEM HAD LEARNED HOW TO LIVE.

This mimeographed indictment of our way of life, Mr. Girdler, has me all kerfurnished, and I turn to you—our No. 1 exponent of rugged individualism—for a little advice. You see, I was thinking of giving my 9-year-old nephew the complete works of Horatio Alger for Christmas. Do you think I ought to substitute a pair of dungarees and a copy of "The Beachcomber's Almanac?"

Respectfully,
BILLY ROSE

(Distributed by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

one of the five impartial contest judges visiting projects in seven states, commented on the projects saying: "It was a real thrill to see how much good can be accomplished in a community by people working together cooperatively for the good of the group rather than for the good of any particular individual."
